Choosing Reproach Over Fleeting Pleasures
Hebrews 11:23–26
December 4, 2016

Introduction:

I. The critical role of a parent's faith. Hebrews 11:23

II. A life-altering choice. Hebrews 11:24–25

III. By faith, Moses made the reasonable choice. Hebrews 11:25–26

IV. Moses was willing to suffer the "reproach of Christ". Hebrews 11:26

Questions for reflection:

- What are the spiritual patterns of your life modeling to the children and young people God has placed in your life?
- Why was Moses' choice to give up the wealth of royalty a reasonable decision?
- Where is God leading you to embrace the 'reproach of Christ' for the sake of His Kingdom and His people?
