

The Church as Family

How might I become a shrewd steward of my church family for the kingdom of God?

The questions below are intended as an aid for self-reflection as you seek to answer the question above. Take a moment to pray for the Lord's insight before beginning.

~~~~~
What parts of my time are affected by this commitment?

---

---

---

---

What talents do I have that are affected by this commitment?

---

---

---

---

What treasures do I have that are affected by this commitment?

---

---

---

---

Thinking of my use of time, talents, and treasures, what are my strengths in the area of building relationships with my church family?

---

---

---

---

Thinking of my use of time, talents, and treasures, what are my weaknesses in the area of building relationships with my church family?

---

---

---

What opportunities for building relationships with my church family are available for me?

---

---

---

What obstacles to building relationships with my church family are present in my life?

---

---

---

---

Using my time, talents, and treasures, what steps can I take to increase my commitment to building relationships with my church family?

---

---

---

---

How can I minimize obstacles to the steps listed above to my commitment to my church family?

---

---

---

---

Additional thoughts or insights the Lord has given me.

---

---

---

Take a moment to pray, asking the Lord for His help and protection as you seek to increase your commitment to actively participating and building close relationships with your church family.