

A Heart of Service

How might I become a shrewd steward of my heart for service in the kingdom of God?

The questions below are intended as an aid for self-reflection as you seek to answer the question above. Take a moment to pray for the Lord's insight before beginning.

~~~~~

What parts of my time are affected by this commitment?

---

---

---

What talents do I have that are affected by this commitment?

---

---

---

What treasures do I have that are affected by this commitment?

---

---

---

Thinking of my use of time, talents, and treasures, what are my strengths in the area of a serving others?

---

---

---

Thinking of my use of time, talents, and treasures, what are my weaknesses in the area of a serving others?

---

---

---

What opportunities for service are available for me?

---

---

---

What obstacles to service are present in my life?

---

---

---

Using my time, talents, and treasures, what steps can I take to increase my commitment to serving others?

---

---

---

How can I minimize obstacles to the steps listed above to my commitment to serving others?

---

---

---

Additional thoughts or insights the Lord has given me.

---

---

---

Take a moment to pray, asking the Lord for His help and protection as you seek to increase your commitment to serving others both inside and outside the church in meaningful ways.