The Rt Revd Jorge Pina Cabral - Bishop of the Lusitanian Church

Around our Diocese:

- This past week we have continued to see Covid-19 cases in Nunavut and Nunavik. Please continue to pray for healing and protection. Praise the Lord for those who are making decisions and working with those affected.
- The past month or so myself and Bishop David have been, at times, working from home. Hopefully from Monday we will both be able to be in the office.
- I am currently working to get an Arctic News out. We are hoping this will be in people's mailboxes before Christmas.
- Aaron and Isabelle Solberg are still staying here in the office learning much about ministering in the North. Isabelle is helping Winnie and myself as we continue to update our files. She has been helping with establishing an effective electronic filing system, which we hope will improve our efficiency.
