Jeremiah 33:6-9, 14-16 (NIV)

<sup>6</sup>“Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it; I will heal my people and will let them enjoy abundant peace and security. <sup>7</sup>I will bring Judah and Israel back from captivity and will rebuild them as they were before. <sup>8</sup>I will cleanse them from all the sin they have committed against me and will forgive all their sins of rebellion against me. <sup>9</sup>Then this city will bring me renown, joy, praise and honor before all nations on earth that hear of all the good things I do for it; and they will be in awe and will tremble at the abundant prosperity and peace I provide for it.’ ...

<sup>14</sup>“The days are coming,’ declares the LORD, ‘when I will fulfill the good promise I made to the people of Israel and Judah.

<sup>15</sup>“In those days and at that time

I will make a righteous Branch sprout from David’s line; he will do what is just and right in the land.

<sup>16</sup>In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety.

This is the name by which it will be called:

The LORD Our Righteous Savior.’
