

Seeing God's Hand Ruth 3:1-18
Bethel Bible Church September 27, 2020

What is God doing in your life, family, job, marriage, or church?

Remember, the providence of God means that he can be counted on to manage, direct and interrupt our lives to accomplish his loving purpose of transforming us into the image of his dear son Jesus. So, with that in mind . . . let's learn to appreciate and expect God to do what the Bible says he does!

Jot down some thoughts in response to a few 'what is God doing in your life?' questions.

The 3rd chapter focuses on the truth of redemption. What is God doing? Both then and now, he is redeeming weak and powerless people.

Read Ruth 3. List observations/questions from Ruth and Naomi's story.

2 truths about God's redeeming love:

1. God's redeeming love is directed toward the needy and unable.

2. God's redeeming love is experienced by obedient faith.

. . . for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. Romans 3:23-25
