

Discussion Questions

October 3, 2018

This past Sunday we looked at how a disciple serves. We examined Jesus' example by washing the disciples' feet, and his conversation with Peter in the process. We saw that we are called to serve others in true humility. Tonight, we will look at one of the clearest examples of Jesus' humility and how we can strive to be like him.

Philippians 2:1-11

So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, 2 complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. 3 Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. 4 Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. 5 Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, 6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. 9 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

What was Jesus called to do?

What did he give up to fulfill his calling?

What was the impact of what he did for him and for us?

What are we called to do?

What are some ways that we can follow the example of Jesus?

What is the potential impact if we followed the example of Jesus in serving others with humility?
