

(1) What is autonomous, expressive individualism? How and where do you see it in society today? What is the only reasonable response to this view?

(2) Of all the sins Paul could have singled out for attention, why did he choose homosexuality? What relationship does homosexuality sustain to the notion of idolatry that Paul discussed in vv. 18-23?

(3) What does Paul mean when he describes this behavior as “contrary to nature”?

(4) How would you respond to someone who tried to argue that the sin of Sodom and Gomorrah wasn't homosexuality but a lack of hospitality?

(5) If someone were to say that homosexuality is morally permissible because Jesus never explicitly mentions it, how would you respond?
