

(1) What in the book of Revelation has had the greatest impact on you personally? Let each person share how this book has changed them, challenged them, or convicted them.

(2) Have you at times found yourself questioning whether or not what you read in Revelation is really true? If so, why? How do the words of Revelation 1:3 and 21:5 and 22:6 help you overcome your doubts and fears?

(3) In Revelation 22:14 John says that only those who have “washed” their robes in the blood of the Lamb will have access to the tree of life and the New Jerusalem. What does this mean? I said in the sermon that “you can’t get saved until you know you are lost.” How does this affect the way you share the gospel with unbelievers?

(4) Let each person share for a few minutes their own views of the second coming of Christ. How often do you think of it? In what practical ways does your anticipation of his return affect how you live? If you don’t think often of his return, why? What can you do to change this?

(5) Paul said in 2 Thessalonians 1:10 that Jesus is coming back to be “marveled at” by those who believe? What is it about Jesus and his return that will lead you to marvel at him? What are the things he has done for you that will lead to your heartfelt and joy-filled amazement to see him face to face?
