Acts 3

Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the ninth hour, the hour of prayer. <sup>2</sup> And a man who had been lame from his mother's womb was being carried along, whom they used to set down every day at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, in order to beg alms of those who were entering the temple. <sup>3</sup> When he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he began asking to receive alms. <sup>4</sup> But Peter, along with John, fixed his gaze on him and said, "Look at us!" <sup>5</sup> And he began to give them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup> But Peter said, "I do not possess silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you: In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene—walk!" <sup>7</sup> And seizing him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankles were strengthened. <sup>8</sup> With a leap he stood upright and began to walk; and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. <sup>9</sup> And all the people saw him walking and praising God; <sup>10</sup> and they were taking note of him as being the one who used to sit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg alms, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

<sup>11</sup> While he was clinging to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them at the so-called portico of Solomon, full of amazement. <sup>12</sup> But when Peter saw this, he replied to the people, "Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this, or why do you gaze at us, as if by our own power or piety we had made him walk? <sup>13</sup> The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His servant Jesus, the one whom you delivered and disowned in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release Him. <sup>14</sup> But you disowned the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, <sup>15</sup> but put to death the Prince of life, the one whom God raised from the dead, a fact to which we are witnesses. <sup>16</sup> And on the basis of faith in His name, it is the name of Jesus which has strengthened this man whom you see and know; and the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect health in the presence of you all.

<sup>17</sup> "And now, brethren, I know that you acted in ignorance, just as your rulers did also. <sup>18</sup> But the things which God announced beforehand by the mouth of all the prophets, that His Christ would suffer, He has thus fulfilled. <sup>19</sup> Therefore repent and return, so that your sins may be wiped away, in order that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord; <sup>20</sup> and that He may send Jesus, the Christ appointed for you, <sup>21</sup> whom heaven must receive until the period of restoration of all things about which God spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets from ancient time. <sup>22</sup> Moses said, 'THE LORD GOD WILL RAISE UP FOR YOU A PROPHET LIKE ME FROM YOUR BRETHREN; TO HIM YOU SHALL GIVE HEED to everything He says to you. <sup>23</sup> And it will be that every soul that does not heed that prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.'<sup>24</sup> And likewise, all the prophets who have spoken, from Samuel and his successors onward, also announced these days. <sup>25</sup> It is you who are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant which God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, 'AND IN YOUR SEED ALL THE FAMILIES OF THE EARTH SHALL BE BLESSED.'<sup>26</sup> For you first, God raised up His Servant and sent Him to bless you by turning every one of you from your wicked ways."

2. Take a moment to write out our memory verse for this week: Acts 1:7-8.

3. Read through Chapter 3 and underline each time you see a reference to God and Jesus. Write what you learn about them from this chapter. The HOLY SPIRIT is also a key theme, so your observations will be noted in the next question.

Jesus:

4. Highlight/mark key words and write down what you learn about them and how they continue to express the theme of Acts.

5. What do you learn about the lame man in Acts 3? (also see Acts 4:22)

6. What do you notice about Peter and John's interaction with the lame man concerning his physical and spiritual needs. Because this text is a historical narrative, we must be careful to note what is descriptive (what details are given about the story) and prescriptive (what is commanded in the text). However, we can learn much from Jesus and the disciples' example about how to conduct a biblical mercy ministry.

- How do Peter and John care for the lame man's physical and spiritual condition? What principles might we glean from this account in Acts 3?

- Are there situations where you can meet someone's physical need, but ultimately help their soul? In what ways are you prepared to help those in need? How can you include your children in this?

*If you have questions about whether or not this gift of healing has ceased, you can listen to the following sermon by John MacArthur: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5CkRgP-ikUk>

7. In the book of Acts, signs and wonders are performed to point to the message of Christ. This is also true in Chapter 3. What is the crowd's response to the man being healed? How does this ultimately lead them to Christ? (Acts 1:1-12)
