

February 5, 2012 Sermon Application Handout

For those who want to take up the encouragement to focus on an attribute of God each week, I would suggest taking a chapter from a shorter, more devotional work and try a chapter from a more extensive work. Also listen to a sermon about that attribute. Some resources I have found helpful are given below.

Some good 'devotional' or shorter chapter books are

The Attributes of God by AW Pink

The Attributes of God by AW Tozer

The Knowledge of the Holy by AW Tozer

The Joy of Fearing God by Jerry Bridges

Knowing God by J. I. Packer

Discovering God in Stories from the Bible by Philip Graham Ryken

Some more extensive ones

The Existence and Attributes of God by Stephen Charnock

No One Like Him by John Feinberg

The Doctrine of God by John Frame

Systematic Theology by Wayne Grudem

Christian Theology by Millard Erickson

Good sermon resources
