LIFE GROUPS
11-28-21

1. Boaz was determined to settle the issue of kinsman redeemer the same day that Ruth asked to come under his wing. Have you ever had to come to someone's rescue? Were you compelled to do what you needed to do as soon as possible?
2. Can you think of a group of people you struggle with loving? Make a list of 3-5 people that you can show undeserved favor, kindness, and unconditional love to this week, in order to show them the redeeming power of Christ. Talk as a group about practical ways to accomplish this.
3. How does Boaz respond when the other redeemer declines the offer? How is this an example of God's work in ordinary circumstances to orchestrate his larger redemptive purposes?
4. When we contrast Boaz and the nameless male relative, what do we learn about what it means to truly live as the people of God? What are some concrete, immediate ways you might play the role of a redeemer in your community, city, nation, or world?
5. What mistered to you most concerning the story of Ruth?
