

1 Corinthians 14:1-25

Passage Reflection

This page is meant for individuals, small group Bible studies, or one-on-one interactions. Since learning more about the text's meaning in our corporate gathering, I would encourage you to meditate on the passage again so that you might respond to God in praise and obedience.

While I have not answered all of the questions below for you, I've included some of my personal meditations that may be of some benefit. May reflection on this passage be used by God to conform you into the image of Christ.

-Pastor Andrew

What do I learn about God?

God intends for us to understand what He says. Understood speech gives comfort, consolation, and encouragement. We have a generously communicative God!

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

Any laziness to understand the Scriptures so that I can build up Christ's people in love.

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

In John 17:17 Jesus prayed that God's people would be sanctified by the truth of God's Word. When giving advice, encouragement, consolation, or instruction – may it be from God's Word.

How does this passage affect evangelism?

When we explain God's Word to people, then they are in a position to be saved. The Word understood has that power.

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

Know the truth accurately. Speak the truth lovingly.
