

1 Corinthians 6:12-20

Passage Reflection

This page is meant for individuals, small group Bible studies, or one-on-one interactions. Since you've now learned more about the text's meaning in our corporate gathering, I would encourage you to meditate on the passage again so that you might respond to God in praise and obedience. I've included some meditations that might benefit you. May reflection on this passage be used by God to conform you into the image of Christ.

What do I learn about God?

Every member of the Trinity is mentioned in this passage. Go through the passage and observe what this passage says about each of them.

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

Is there any way that I am not fleeing sexual temptation? What would fleeing look like?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

Read 2 Timothy 2:22. How would I practically obey this command as it relates to fleeing sexual immorality?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

Think about the lost people that I love the most (family, friends). What would they think if I was telling them about Christ while also being engaged in sexual immorality?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

How can I help those close to me fight for their purity? How can I encourage them to flee? How can I defend my brothers and sisters against these temptations?
