The Prophet God Provides
1 Samuel 1-7

Thursday: Proverbs 12

Consider yesterday's proverb in 11:14. Proverbs 12:15 helps us remember that not only are we to seek wisdom from "an abundance of counselors," where there is safety, but to listen to the advice given. It is "the way of the fool" who is "right in his own eyes." It is one thing to seek wisdom; it is another to listen to it. Pray that the Lord would help you in both of these areas, seeking wisdom and listening when it is given.

Friday: Proverbs 13

"The Hebrew word translated "hastily" in Proverbs 13:11 refers to more than the attempt to gain wealth quickly.

It also has the sense of earning money by prohibited means. Unjust weights and measures are an abomination to the Lord (Deut. 25:13–16), and those who earn money by wicked means will surely lose it in the end. They may seem truly wealthy, but they are poor with respect to the things of God, and they will be held accountable for their sin." - Ligonier.org

Saturday: Prayer

Continue in prayer for the Standridge family serving in Italy. Pray as they search for a location to plant a church. Pray that the Lord would make this clear to them and that much fruit would come from their mission to evangelize the lost in Italy.

Monday: Proverbs 9

Today's chapter focuses on the way of wisdom (1-12) and the way of folly (13-18). The chapter contrasts Lady Wisdom and Lady Folly, where Lady Wisdom is shown to be desirable. As you read through Proverbs 9, pray that the Lord would grant a greater desire in you to pursue wisdom and turn away from folly.

Tuesday: Proverbs 10

"Too many words inevitably result in sin (Proverbs 10:19). Wordly sin just compounds the closely clinging weights of relational conflict, concealed lies, broken trust, a violated conscience, and knowledge of a grieved Holy Spirit. And too much time in the satanic whirlwind of worldly words also takes its toll, weighing down our spirits." - Jon Bloom

Wednesday: Proverbs 11

"Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety," (v. 14). A counselor aids another in making wise decisions. The application here encompasses a broad range of decisions. The point is that there is safety in decision-making by seeking guidance from "an abundance of counselors." Pray and ask the Lord to place trusted, wise, and godly people in your life to help you make wise decisions.

Sermon Application

In response to Sunday's sermon pray over and answer the following application questions: Are there examples to follow? Commands to obey? Errors to avoid? Sins to forsake? Promises to claim? Thoughts about God?

Book of the Month

Saints, Sufferers, and Sinners: Loving Others as God Loves Us by Michael R. Emlet

"In this Scripture-saturated book, Michael Emlet uses real-life counseling interactions and insights gained from years of counseling and training counselors to demonstrate how we can love, listen to, grieve with, challenge, and accept the people around us in ways that befit the gospel of the grace of Jesus."
— Nancy Guthrie

Weekly Resource

Three Tests for Diagnosing Idols of the Heart by Matthew Miller

"Is God the object of our hearts' deepest affections and longings, or is something else captivating us? That 'something else' need not be evil in itself. When Jesus says we must choose whether we will serve God or money, it is not because money is bad in itself; rather, as Paul says, it is 'the love of money' that is the root of all kinds of evil."
