Thursday: Proverbs 22

“Make no friendship with a man given to anger, nor go with a wrathful man, lest you learn his ways and entangle yourself in a snare,” Proverbs 22:24-25. Those who have a terrible and angry attitude towards life can be contagious. Therefore, this proverb cautions us to choose our friends wisely and with care.

Friday: Proverbs 23

“A much more helpful phrase for Christians is ‘direct your heart,’ which is given us in Proverbs 23:19. This more accurately captures the way Scripture as a whole instructs us to relate to our hearts, the part of our inner being that loves or hates, that treasures persons or things or despises them. Our hearts, when left unchecked, follow that love or hatred in all sorts of directions. Therefore, our hearts need to be directed away from following deceitful loves and treasures, and toward what is truly lovely and valuable.” - Jon Bloom

Saturday: Prayer

Pray for Daniel and Coreen Esplin at Indian Bible College. Also, pray for Coreen and the three ladies she has in her mentoring group. Two of them are first-year students, and one is a fourth-year mentor in training. These women desire to grow in their faith and seek God’s will for their life.

Monday: Proverbs 19

“Many are the plans in the mind of a man, but it is the purpose of the Lord that will stand,” Proverbs 19:21.

“To put it simply, we should find rest when we read texts such as Proverbs 19:21 and find confirmation that although we may make many and varied plans, these plans will only come to fruition if they reflect our Creator’s purpose.”

Tuesday: Proverbs 20

Proverbs 20:1 is mostly self-explanatory. “Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler, and whoever is led astray by it is not wise.” The New Testament also speaks to this area of life. “And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit” (Eph. 5:18). The Bible doesn’t simply say don’t get drunk with wine and state the consequences; it offers the solution: Be “filled with the Spirit.” The Bible is not simply a list of dos and don’ts. The Bible provides answers for a transformed life.

Wednesday: Proverbs 21

Consider Proverbs 21:30: “No wisdom, no understanding, no counsel can avail against the Lord.” No plan, no matter how well thought out by a person, can keep God from accomplishing His plan and purposes. His enemies can only go as far as He determines. Although the enemies of God may seem to be winning, the ultimate victory already belongs to Jesus, and He is on our side. The believer ought to take comfort in this and praise Him for His sovereignty over their life.

Sermon Application

In response to Sunday's sermon pray over and answer the following application questions: Are there examples to follow? Commands to obey? Errors to avoid? Sins to forsake? Promises to claim? Thoughts about God?

Book of the Month

Saints, Sufferers, and Sinners: Loving Others as God Loves Us by Michael R. Emlet

"In this Scripture-saturated book, Michael Emlet uses real-life counseling interactions and insights gained from years of counseling and training counselors to demonstrate how we can love, listen to, grieve with, challenge, and accept the people around us in ways that befit the gospel of the grace of Jesus."
— Nancy Guthrie

Weekly Resource

How to Overcome Fear in Evangelism by Jordan Standridge

"No one wants to be rejected. No one wants to be mocked. No one wants to lose relationships. Those are all understandable fears that we all face as Christians. But the fact of the matter is that we need to weigh out the competing fears."
