“And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ.”

Philippians 1:9-10

CANYON ANNOUNCEMENTS

Members Meetings

Our next members meeting is scheduled for November 15th. Please mark your calendar for that evening and plan to join us.

Student Ministry

Student Ministry meets every other Wednesday from 6:30-8:30 at the Sommerville's home. Student ministry is open to 6th grade through senior high-school students so please plan on attending! For meeting dates and more information go to canyonprescott.org/students.

Women's Ministry

Our new women's ministry format studies have started. These will be small groups of women meeting on different days and times in various homes for the purpose of mutual spiritual benefit to one another. You can signup for a discipleship group by reaching out to Susan Cosgrove at (928) 671-1963 or bcozrn52@gmail.com.

Gospel Rescue Mission

It's that time of the year for collecting socks for the Yavapai Territorial Gospel Rescue Mission. They need school-age sizes, K-12, but will distribute to the homeless any adult size socks. Socks must be new to donate. Donations can be brought to Sunday services where a collection bin will be available on the back table.

CANYON ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ministry Highlights: Small Groups

Ministry Highlights help communicate how our church members serve one another and meet needs in Jesus' name.

Dave Lutz oversees the small groups ministry which exists to provide a venue for interaction and discussion of God's Word, growing disciples and supporting one another. Please pray for wisdom in determining a process for birthing new groups as the numbers of our church members increase. And that our members would be sanctified together and love each other well. If you're interested in joining a small group, you can email Dave Lutz at davidrlutz60@gmail.com.

SERMON APPLICATION

In response to Sunday's sermon pray over and answer the following application questions:

Are there examples to follow?

Commands to obey?

Errors to avoid?

Sins to forsake?

Promises to claim?

Thoughts about God?

OUTREACH PRAYER

Our outreach prayer this week is for the Standridge family serving in Italy. Praise the Lord along with them as they have received answers to prayers, specifically in evangelistic opportunities and the moving forward of Jenny being able to remain in the country. Pray over these things and that the Lord would continue to bless them in this endeavor.

RESOURCES

Book of the Month: Reckless Abandon

by David Sitton

"Ambassadors for Christ don't have easy lives. Jesus told us about the spiritual war that would accompany our discipleship. This intense missionary biography has been used in my life to lull me out of a spiritual malaise and to remember whose side I am on. I pray that it would encourage you as you engage in the difficult mission work of Christ." - Pastor Andrew

HELP FROM THE GOD OF THE HILLS

Psalm 121

[illegible]

MONDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: Acts 8:1-25

“And Saul approved of his execution. And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles” (v. 1). This scattering, this dispersion, is a fulfillment of the promise in Acts 1:8. That promise was that the gospel would go out to the end of the earth. The gospel has gone out, and it keeps going. Pray that the gospel continues to be spread throughout all nations.

TUESDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: Acts 8:26-40

Today's passage reminds us that the Holy Spirit guides and directs us in our witnessing. The Scripture passage the eunuch was reading, Isaiah 53:7-8, was clearly of the Spirit's leading. It was the Holy Spirit that directed Philip to approach the eunuch. The Holy Spirit directed both Philip and the eunuch to arrive at a rare watering-place, in the desert, precisely when the eunuch requested baptism. Praise the Holy Spirit for His working and ask Him to help lead you in your witnessing for Christ.

WEDNESDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: Acts 9:1-19a

"Along the way to Damascus, Jesus spoke to Saul. A great light from heaven, which Saul would have recognized as the glory of God, accompanied the words of Jesus. Jesus told Saul that in persecuting the church he was persecuting Jesus Himself, because the Lord is associated with His body. Jesus told Saul to go to Damascus and await instructions. When Saul got up, he found that he was blind. Saul now realized that the Christian claim was correct. The Lord who appeared to Israel in the shekinah glory in the Old Testament became incarnate and was now enthroned at the right hand of the Father. There have been few conversions as dramatic as Paul's. True conversion, however, need not be dramatic to be authentic. Think back on your conversion. Thank God for 'invading' your life and calling you." - Ligonier.org

THURSDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: Acts 9:19b-31

"So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was being built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it multiplied" (v. 31). "Fear of the Lord," a common theme in Acts, does not refer to fear of final judgment. For the believer, there is no fear of final judgment because Christ's finished work on the cross. Our debt of sin was canceled at the cross.

*Now why this fear and unbelief
Has not the Father put to grief
His spotless Son for us
And will the righteous Judge of men
Condemn me for that debt of sin
Now canceled at the cross*

Gospel & Acts Project: Acts 9:32-43

"Lydda, Peter's first stop, was about twenty miles west of Jerusalem on the way to Joppa, which was about twelve miles farther. In Lydda, Peter healed a lame believer named Aeneas, and the whole city converted to the faith. Then Peter was summoned to Joppa by two men who told him that one of the most faithful and important women in the church had died. Her name was Dorcas, and she had a significant ministry helping widows and the poor. Peter prayed for her and then raised her from the dead. As a result, many in Joppa also believed in the Lord (Acts 9:32-43). Think about your own locality. How is the Gospel spreading in your town, city, or metropolitan area? Evaluate your part in the spread of the Gospel." - Ligonier.org

SATURDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: Acts 10:1-33

"And the voice came to him again a second time, 'What God has made clean, do not call common'" (v. 15). With this, God overturned the old clean/unclean dietary laws. God did not want anything like dietary laws getting in the way of fellowship with the Gentiles. What God did here was to make unity possible, in the church, between converted Jews and converted Gentiles. We see God prizing unity in the church. Pray for unity in the church. Pray that you would prize unity in the church and make it a priority.
