Thursday: Ecclesiastes 11

“So if a person lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember that the days of darkness will be many. All that comes is vanity” (v. 8). The call is to enjoy life and to be grateful for the gifts the Lord has given. However, the Bible shows us that there are greater joys to be had in heaven. The joys in life are not to be despised, but we should not hold them so tightly that we forget that leaving this life to be with Christ is far better indeed.

Friday: Ecclesiastes 12

“Ecclesiastes 12:11 calls into doubt the assumption that the biblical authors did not know they were writing sacred Scripture inspired by God. It is almost certainly the case that the Hebrew term translated ‘Shepherd’ in this verse refers to the Lord Himself, which is why the ESV has capitalized it. This makes good sense because the ancient Hebrews often referred to God as their ‘shepherd’ (for example, Ps. 23:1).” - Ligonier.org

Saturday: Prayer

The Gospel Rescue Mission continues its drive for cold-weather clothing to provide for those in need of the community. Pray that they can use this opportunity to meet those in need to give people what they need most, the Gospel. Pray that there are opportunities to reach our community for Christ in all that the Mission does.

Monday: Ecclesiastes 8

“Ecclesiastes 8:16–17 has a key word for our ever-continuing quest to peer into what only God knows—stop. We draw this lesson from what the Preacher says about the pursuit of knowledge, namely, that despite our diligent inquiries, we ‘cannot find out the work [of God] that is done under the sun.’ Try as we might, we will never know things as God knows them, and some mysteries of His providential rule we will never solve.” - Ligonier.org

Tuesday: Ecclesiastes 9

Regardless, if a person is righteous or wicked, whether that person has a difficult or pleasant life, one thing is sure: Death will come to all. However, those who are godly are “in the hand of God” (v. 1). There is assurance for those who are called children of God. “For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith” (Gal. 3:26). Take heart and praise God in the assurance of hope you have in Christ.

Wednesday: Ecclesiastes 10

“You are unlikely to find the word ‘bored’ in your English Bible (unless it’s referring to drilling a hole in something). But you will find words like ‘slothful’ (Ecclesiastes 10:18), ‘sluggard,’ ‘lazy,’ and ‘idle,’ and the Bible makes it clear that these are sinful character traits. So, is being bored the same thing as being slothful, sluggardly, lazy, or idle? Not necessarily. There are many reasons we might feel disinterest: sleep deprivation, illness malaise, depression, grief, disappointment, etc. But it might be a momentary indulgence in slothfulness, or it might even be slothfulness wearing boredom as a disguise.” - Jon Bloom

Sermon Application

In response to Sunday's sermon pray over and answer the following application questions: Are there examples to follow? Commands to obey? Errors to avoid? Sins to forsake? Promises to claim? Thoughts about God?

Book of the Month

The Power of Christian Contentment by Andrew Davis

"Jesus recognized the difficulties of life. He healed, taught, wept, died for sin. Jesus also determined that we would be left here on earth to do His work until He returns. While we wait, and as citizens of a corrupt planet earth, we are regularly faced with the temptation for discontentment. May this book help you remember the goodness and sovereignty of your Savior."
-Pastor Andrew

Weekly Resource

Thanksgiving in Everything, Not for Everything by David Prince

"The Bible is not calling us to stoic indifference to all that comes our way. To the contrary, those who love as a reflection of Christ will love more deeply, not less. We will know and experience hurt, disappointment, confusion, and failure, but through it all, we can and must rightly give thanks in all of it."
