Thursday: Psalm 2

God, enthroned in heaven, is unconcerned with those who plot and resist His rightful authority. This passage tells us that God sits and laughs at such things (v. 4). God sits enthroned over all of the earth. Human powers are no threat to His rule. As God is unconcerned over such things, we also should not be concerned.

Friday: Psalm 3

"I lay down and slept; I woke again, for the Lord sustained me" (v.5). God sustains, and God protects. The psalmist remembered how God has cared for him in the past. The past has built confidence for the present, enabling him to walk by faith. It is because of this that the psalmist can sleep in the face of danger. Remember how the Lord has cared for you in the past. Praise Him for it, and may this be a help to you when struggling in the present.

Saturday: Prayer

This week our outreach prayer is for the students and staff at Indian Bible College. Continue to pray for their growth in Christlikeness and that the college is used to evangelize the communities around them.

Monday: Job 41

God pointed out that Job cannot control the mighty sea creature known as the leviathan. Job was not as big as he thought himself to be, and he needed to realize this fact. Job had expected God to answer him when He was answerable to God. We truly have an awesome God. Yet we're all but little servants of our awesome God.

Tuesday: Job 42

In this final chapter of the book of Job, Job repents of his arrogance. Job had a renewed sight of God that exposed his arrogance. Job recognizes and acknowledges God's power and sovereignty. Pray that God would humble your heart to see and repent of any pride or arrogance. Pray that God would consistently renew your sight of Him.

Wednesday: Psalm 1

This psalm reminds us that in the end, there are only two ways to live. There is the way of the wicked and the way of the righteous. This psalm also instructs the righteous on how they are to live by delighting in the law of the Lord and meditate on it. Pray that as you begin reading, through the Book of Psalms, you stay focused on meditating on Scripture and ask the Lord for greater insight.

Book of the Month

Conscience* by Andy Naselli & J.D. Crowley

"Our Bible teaches us how to disagree with other Christians. We can get a long and enjoy fellowship with one another even if we have differing views on certain matters. A sad reality today is that many people in the church handle disagreements in the same ways that those outside of the church handle them. May this book serve to correct, encourage, and inform you in your pursuit of maintaining the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace."

-Pastor Andrew

Weekly Resource

Something Profound in Our Generation

by Ray Ortlund

"A nice church filled with nice people doing nice things will make no impact in the intensity of our times. Every hybrid form of "Christianity" deserves to die, and it will die, because it simply is not of God. But here is a pathway back into the prophetic power of apostolic Christianity."
