

God my King is from of old,
working salvation in the midst of the earth.

You divided the sea by your might;
you broke the heads of the sea monsters on the waters.

You crushed the heads of Leviathan;
you gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.

You split open springs and brooks;
you dried up ever-flowing streams.

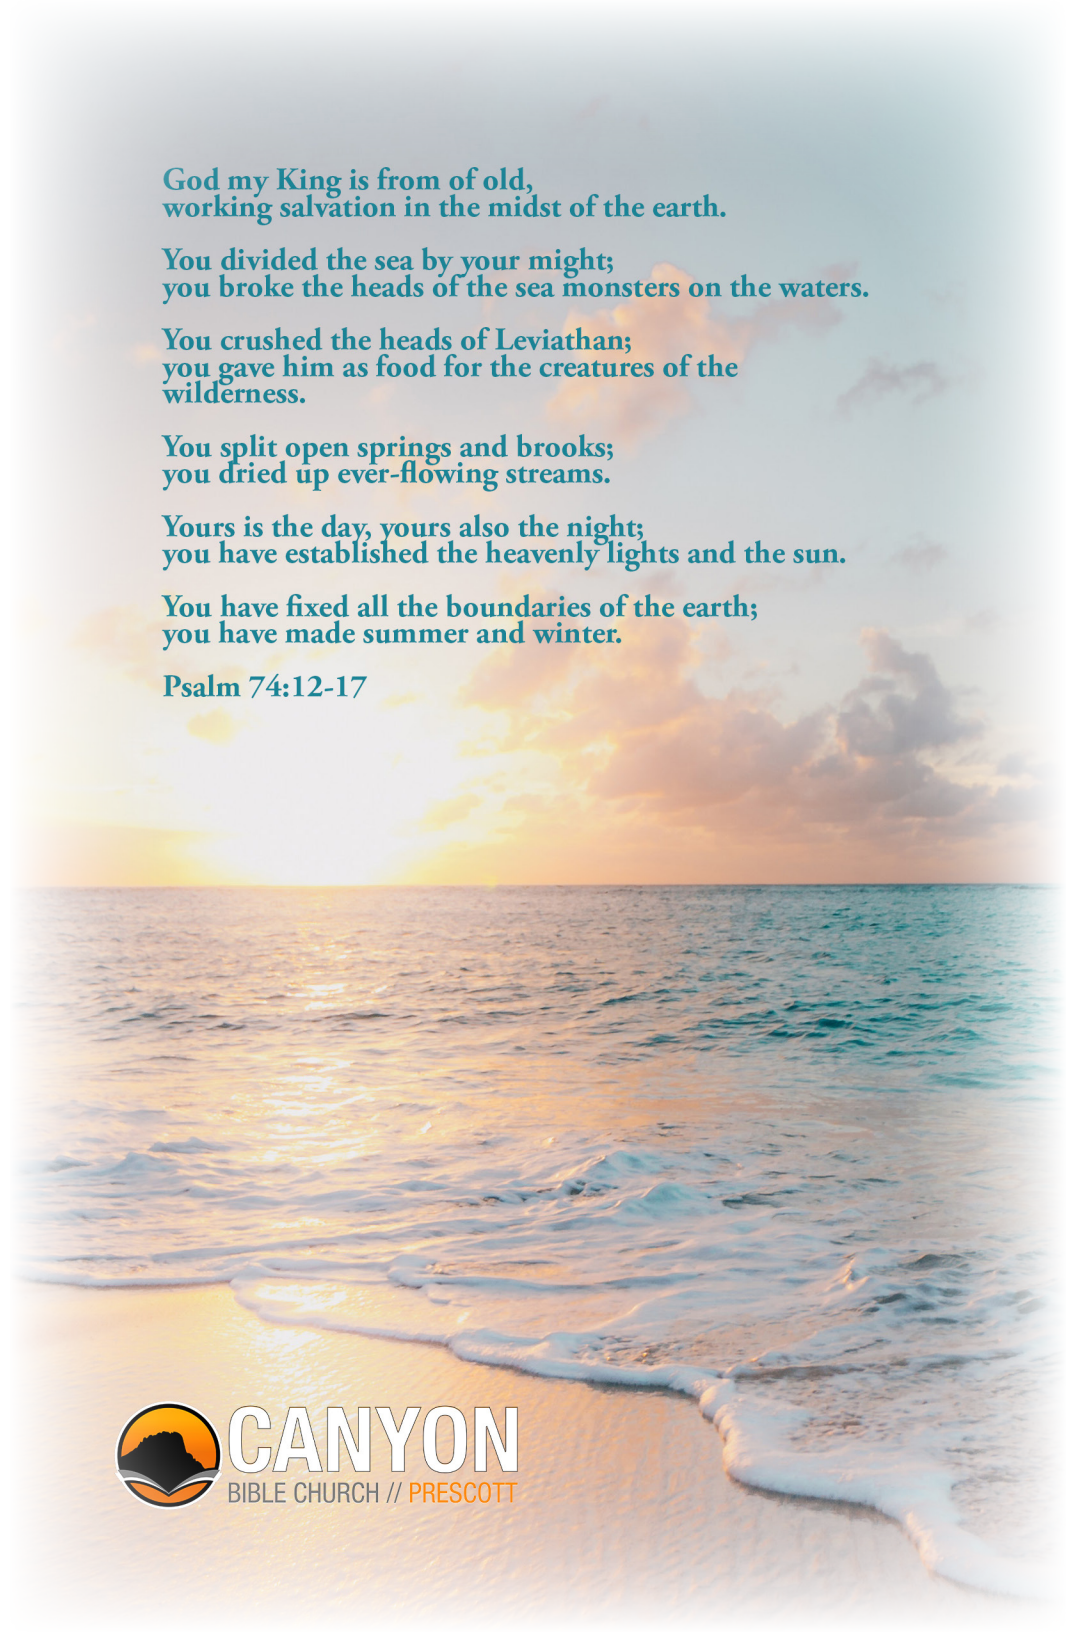

Yours is the day, yours also the night;
you have established the heavenly lights and the sun.

You have fixed all the boundaries of the earth;
you have made summer and winter.

Small Groups

Small Groups at Canyon Prescott are designed to give members of the church a smaller environment for fellowship during the week. The aim of these groups is for instruction, which leads to growth in holiness as we grow in love and fellowship with one another. SERMON APPLICATION

Assess. Is your soul restless in any way? Why is that? Have you honestly determined to place your eternal trust in Jesus Christ? If you have placed your trust in Jesus Christ, are you letting the cares of this world become more important than they should be? If so, Read Colossians 3:1-4 and Philippians 3:20-4:1. Ask the Lord to give you an eternal perspective of your life here on earth and a greater hope for Heaven.

OUTREACH PRAYER

Below are but a few, specific, prayer requests for the Gospel Rescue Mission:

- Salvation for a whole family with many good questions and inquiring hearts.
- God to send someone to fill Night Shift Position.
- Dave and Yvonne Barreras, strength, perseverance, rest and good health as they cover both days and nights at the Mission.
- New Chaplain and Meal Coordinator. God would use them in a mighty way to impact the lives they touch.
- Pray how God will use the Mission to impact the community.

RESOURCES

Book of the Month: The Gospel Comes with a House Key
by Rosaria Butterfield

"God strongly advances his cause by raising up prophetic voices of fresh insight, bold words, and powerful impact. Rosaria Butterfield is just such a voice for God in our time. The Gospel Comes with a House Key is Rosaria's heart reaching out to our hearts, calling us to love our neighbors with sacrificial hospitality. This book is going to shake us all up in the most wonderfully destabilizing way."

8 Implications of Calling Jesus "Lord"

by Jesse Johnson

Printed copies available on the back table on Sunday.

WEDNESDAY

Epistle Project: Ephesians 4:17-32

In verses 25-32 Paul gives practical examples of how the members of the church build up Christ's body. Paul shows us how we are to live edifying lifestyles. Read these verses again and ask that the Lord would make these things, the things which build up the body of Christ, evident in your life.

THURSDAY

Epistle Project: Ephesians 5:1-21

The Christian life is a life of imitation. Yes, we imitate those who disciple us and lead us, but even this is, as Paul said to the Corinthians, a following our leaders as they follow Christ (1 Cor 10:1). We imitate God. Paul tells the Ephesians, "Be imitators of God, as beloved Children, and walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us." A small boy looks up to his father as he shaves or ties his tie, and soon the boy is found looking at himself in the mirror, imitating his father. In the same way, we look up to Jesus and imitate him. However, what we imitate in him, according to Paul, is this: "Christ loved us and gave himself up for us." Jesus our King died for us. He gave himself up for us. And we are called to imitate this action, giving up ourselves for those around us. Dying — in a sense — for them. Dying to our preferences and desires, dying to our ways and our time, and doing it for them. In this way, we imitate our heavenly father as we imitate his son. To love is to imitate Christ and give ourselves up for others.

FRIDAY

Epistle Project: Ephesians 5:22-33

It's not uncommon for couples who have been married for many years to get asked the question, "What's the key to a good marriage?" It's a good question really and it's especially one that Christians should be thinking about. But there's a better question to ask, and that is, "What's the key to a godly marriage?" That is the question that we see answered in today's passage. When God wants us to think about marriage, He wants us to think about the gospel. Wives are to display the church's submission to our Lord and husbands are to display our Lord's love for His church. Marriage, you see, is not actually about the people who are in it but is about the Lord who ordained it. So, wives, does your submission to your husband preach to the world that Jesus is the head of His church? Husbands, does the way you show love to your wife preach to the world that Jesus sacrificially laid His life down on behalf of His church? You can read all the marriage books in the world and gain all the practical tips that people have to offer, but if you miss this you miss the whole point.

SATURDAY

Epistle Project: Catch Up Day

Take time to pray and praise the Lord for all that He is doing in your study through the Epistles. Ask Him to continue to open your heart and mind to the truths of Scripture so that you would give greater honor and glory to Him.
