RESOURCES

Book of the Month: Just Do Something
by Kevin DeYoung

"I'm concerned that in the lives of too many Christians mysticism has replaced biblical thinking as the basis for decision-making and trying to decipher the will of God. The subtitle alone is a reason to read the book. It reads, 'How to make a decision without dreams, visions, fleeces, impressions, open doors, random Bible verses, casting lots, liver shivers, writing in the sky, etc.'"

Just Stop It: Instructions on How to Repent

WEDNESDAY

Epistle Project: Philippians 2:12-18

In this passage Paul tells his readers to “work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.” To “work out” here means to be continuously working in an effort to bring something about to completion. Our faith is to be demonstration day by day. This is possible through God’s empowering presence because “it is God who works in you.” Pray and thank the Lord for His empowering presence in your life. Ask Him to help you live in such a way that your faith, in Him, is always on display.

FRIDAY

Epistle Project: Philippians 3:1-11

What is the most prized possession that you own? What is the greatest accomplishment that you have ever achieved? In God’s grace, He gives us good gifts and great opportunities to do some amazing things in life. There’s nothing wrong with these things - except, of course, if you find your worth in them. What Paul teaches us in this passage is that knowing Jesus Christ and being found righteous through faith in Him is the single most valuable gift anyone can ever experience. When we value Him and His salvation most, then sacrifice of anything else comes naturally to us. Dear Christian, see Jesus Christ for all that He is. See knowing Him as the most valuable prize you can ever attain.

THURSDAY

Epistle Project: Philippians 2:19-30

In this passage Paul highlights Timothy’s life as being service-centered. This is to be an example to us. This also highlights the very personal nature of early church life. Timothy was “genuinely concerned” for the welfare of the Philippian church. In this Timothy was emulating Christ. We too should seek to emulate Timothy, as he emulated Christ, and have a concern for the life of the church. Pray and ask the Lord to burden your heart to serve others and seek to build up the body of Christ (Eph. 4:12).

SATURDAY

Epistle Project: Philippians 3:12-4:1

“Therefore, my brothers, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved,” (Phil 4:1). To “stand firm” is a military term that would describe a soldier at his post. As Christians we are commanded to “stand firm.” Pray and ask the Lord to help you to be one who stands firm “in the Lord,” to be one who stands firm for the Lord.
