"The power of prayer can never be overrated."

They who cannot serve God by preaching need not regret. If a man can but pray, he can do anything. He who knows how to overcome with God in prayer has heaven and earth at his disposal."

—Charles Spurgeon

CANYON ANNOUNCEMENTS

Prayer Requests

Please register your attendance by writing your names and prayer requests in the insert provided in your worship guide. Please then fold the insert and place in the offering.

College & Career

Canyon on Campus meets Friday's from 7 to 9pm at Yavapai College's Student Activity room. Email Pastor Jason with any questions at jdrumm@canyonprescott.org.

Kids of Canyon

The Kids of Canyon ministry currently serves Children newborn-8 years old. Parents are welcome to drop off as early as 9:45 prior to the service. Please contact Joe Sapko, at children@canyonprescott.org, with any questions, to schedule a time to observe the classrooms, or if you're interested in serving in the Kids of Canyon ministry.

Small Groups

Our Small Groups are an opportunity for all our members to engage in a close-knit fellowship on another day of the week. It is our prayer that these groups provide fellowship and biblical instruction, leading to growth in holiness as we grow in our love for one another. If you'd like more information, email Dave Lutz at davidrlutz60@gmail.com.

Student Ministry

This Wednesday, May 22, Student Ministry will not be meeting at the Sommerville's. Instead, the girls will meet together at Kristin McLaughlin's home, and the guys will meet at Freedom Station. Both meeting times will be at 6:30. If you have any questions, please contact your student's small group leader.

Camp Regen! Registration is open for Camp Regen, which will be held July 26-30. Deposit of $100 due by June 5th to secure a spot. For more information or to register go to CanyonPrescott.org/Student.

CANYON ANNOUNCEMENTS

Women's Ministry

Although CBCP Women's Ministry doesn't provide a structured weekly large-group Bible study during the summer, we encourage you to organize your own in-home small-group studies while we are on break. For a list of suggested resources, please visit our web page at CanyonPrescott.org/Women. We will begin our weekly Bible study again in late August with the 2nd half of the Gospel of Mark. Have a great summer!

Church Picnic

Save the date for Sunday, June 2nd at 4:30pm for a picnic at the church property. This will be a bring your own meal for your family, blankets, outdoor games, etc. We are planning on having a chili cook off and a pie baking contest and more!

SERMON APPLICATION

In response to Sunday's sermon pray over and answer the following application questions:

Are there examples to follow?

Commands to obey?

Errors to avoid?

Sins to forsake?

Promises to claim?

Thoughts about God?

Principles to live by?

OUTREACH PRAYER

On May 19, the Church of Chinandega will celebrate one more year of enjoying the fidelity of our Lord in our lives. Pray that this time is a good opportunity to spread the gospel to the guests. By faith, the men of the church are traveling to Corinth (municipality of Chinandega) to share the gospel with street men who are struggling with drugs and alcohol. Pray that they show biblical love to them. This week two new small groups start with new people. Pray for their hearts, that they grow in love, humility, and commitment. Pray for Pastor Frank's shepherd's heart, that the Lord would enable him daily to care for His flock, that he can do it faithfully.

RESOURCES

Book of the Month: Finally Free: Fighting for Purity With the Power of Grace

by Heath Lambert

"This book is richly biblical, soundly Christian, and centered in the gospel. Christians should read it and quickly pass it to others. It will be of enormous help to pastors, youth ministers, college ministers, and the Christians of all ages."

- R. Albert Mohler Jr.

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 39:1-18

Verse 18, of this passage, tells us that Ebed-melech, a Gentile, an Ethiopian, had saving faith in God. He put his trust in the Lord. How are we to place our trust in the Lord? Proverbs 3:5 tells us, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.” Psalm 56:3 says, “When I am afraid, I put my trust in you.” Hebrews 13:6, “So we can confidently say, ‘The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?’” Proverbs 16:20, “Whoever gives heed to instruction prospers, and blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord.” Our hearts are to completely trust in the Lord, and this is to be done in all circumstances, especially when we are afraid. We trust in the Lord confidently as we heed His instructions. Pray and ask the Lord to help you to trust in Him more each and every day.

TUESDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 40:1-16

In today’s reading, we see the grace of God shining bright in the midst of tremendous suffering. As Jeremiah was being transported to Babylon with the rest of the captives, the captain of the guard set him free, gave him the choice to go where he wanted, and even made sure that he was provided for. This is a clear reminder to us that no matter how difficult our situation, we must always do the Lord’s will, and we can trust that He will take care of His people. Set yourself to do the good that the Lord wants you to do and trust Him for the results.

WEDNESDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 41:1-18

Ishmael, with his men, killed Gedaliah, who had been appointed governor, and the Judeans who were with him in what was a political massacre. Then seventy of the eighty men, who had most likely come to mourn the destruction of Jerusalem, were slaughtered. Gedaliah had been warned, by Johanan, of the plot against him, but Gedaliah did not think that Ishmael would be guilty of such treason. Our enemies are everywhere, even among those who we might consider not to be. However, the Lord surrounds us with people who are wise and see things that we do not. Ask the Lord to humble your heart so you would heed the wisdom that the Lord provides.

FRIDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 43:1-13

In today's reading, we find that the remnant of the people in Judah decided it was safer in Egypt than where the Lord had left them. Though Jeremiah warned them, they once again ignored the word of the Lord. This story reminds us that it may be tempting to find safety and security in the things this world offers, but we can never ignore God's revealed will. If we seek our security in anything this world has to offer, then we too will be sorely let down.

THURSDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 42:1-22

In today's passage, we see that before Judah goes to Egypt, the leaders asked Jeremiah to seek God's will. They are desperate to know what they were to do. Jeremiah replies that he will deliver God's word to them and will do so accurately. In response, the people declare they will obey God's word, no matter what it is. "Whether it is good or bad, we will obey the voice of the Lord our God to whom we are sending you, that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the Lord our God," (Jer 42:6). Whether or not we perceive God's will as good or bad, "we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose," (Rom 8:28). Our prayer ought to be that we will obey, "the voice of the Lord," meaning we will obey what is written in Scripture, knowing that it is right and right for us.

SATURDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 44:1-30

God brought the disaster that He had threatened. The disaster came because people rejected God's servants, the prophets, and they had refused to turn from their idolatry. God's judgment had come because of idolatry. When was the last time you considered idolatry? Is idolatry hiding somewhere in your heart? Ask the Lord to search your heart to reveal any idols so that you would repent.
