Please register your attendance by writing your names and prayer requests in the insert provided in your worship guide. Please then fold the insert and place in the offering.

College & Career

Canyon on Campus meets Friday's from 7 to 9pm at Yavapai College's Student Activity room. Email Pastor Jason with any questions at jdrumm@canyonprescott.org.

Kids of Canyon

The Kids of Canyon ministry currently serves Children newborn-8 years old. Parents are welcome to drop off as early as 9:45 prior to the service. Please contact Joe Sapko, at children@canyonprescott.org, with any questions, to schedule a time to observe the classrooms, or if you're interested in serving in the Kids of Canyon ministry.

Small Groups

Our Small Groups are an opportunity for all our members to engage in a close-knit fellowship on another day of the week. It is our prayer that these groups provide fellowship and biblical instruction, leading to growth in holiness as we grow in our love for one another. If you'd like more information, email Dave Lutz at davidrlutz60@gmail.com.

CANYON ANNOUNCEMENTS

Women's Ministry

Although CBCP Women's Ministry doesn't provide a structured weekly large-group Bible study during the summer, we encourage you to organize your own in-home small-group studies while we are on break. For a list of suggested resources, please visit our web page at CanyonPrescott.org/Women. We will begin our weekly Bible study again in late August with the 2nd half of the Gospel of Mark. Have a great summer!

Church Picnic

Our church picnic is today at 4:30 pm at the church property, located at 1837 Highway 89, turn west at the intersection of Highway 89 and Rosser St. is a bring your dinner event. Also, bring your outdoor chairs, blankets, easy-up canopies, etc. Although we will have bounce houses, kickball, and other games, you are welcome to bring your outdoor games. We are also planning on having a chili cook-off and pie baking contest. We are recommending wearing closed toed shoes, due to the potential for ants on the property.

New Campus Project

Sunday, June 30th is the fifth Sunday of the month, and all giving will be designated for our new campus project. Online giving for the project will be open from 6/28/19-7/5/19.

SERMON APPLICATION

Based on 1 Peter 1:6-9, have you been viewing the trials in your life wrongly? How would you now view them in light of this passage?

OUTREACH PRAYER

As you pray, for Indian Bible College, pray specifically for Daniel and Coreen Esplin whom we directly support. Pray that the Lord will use them mightily in the lives of the students. Pray that they are continually strengthened and encouraged by the Word and by other believers.

RESOURCES

Book of the Month: The Gospel and Personal Evangelism
by Mark Dever

"Mark Dever is admittedly not a gifted evangelist. It is encouraging to know that the author of a book about the gospel and personal evangelism is just like us - not great at talking to others about Jesus Christ. However, don't mistake Dever's admission about his weakness for a lack of passion about sharing the salvation message. While we may engage in feeble attempts to preach the gospel, it is our job to do so. And when thinking rightly, it is our joy to do so. I pray that you will read this book and that it will motivate and assist you to speak of the greatest reality in the entire world - the gospel!" - Pastor Andrew

THE PURPOSE OF TRIALS

1 Peter 1:6-9

This image shows a full page of blank white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page, providing a template for writing or drawing. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the page.

MONDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 49:34-39

Invaders were sent, by God, against Elam to destroy it. But at the end of this passage, we read of a promise. The promise is that God would allow for the Elamites to return and thus predict future salvation for Gentiles. “But in the latter days I will restore the fortunes of Elam, declares the Lord” (Jer. 49:39). In Acts 2:9, the Elamites were among those present at Pentecost. In God’s providence, He preserved this people and allowed them to return so that they might be present at Pentecost. Read Acts 2 and make a note of all the nations represented during Peter’s sermon at Pentecost.

TUESDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 50:1-46

In today's reading, the Lord declared His judgment upon the nation of Babylon. As a reminder, this was the nation He used to judge His people and even called King Nebuchadnezzar His servant. This pronouncement of judgment reminds us that the Lord never plays favorites. He used the nation of Babylon, but He also judged them for their pride. Let us remember that the Lord's ways are higher than ours (Isa. 55:9) and that, even when we can't understand His purposes, He always works good for His people (Rom. 8:28).

WEDNESDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 51:1-64

Jeremiah 51:4 states: “For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God, the Lord of hosts, but the land of the Chaldeans is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.” Even though there had been judgments, which God had sent on Israel and Judah, He had not forsaken them, and here they are reminded of that fact. Christians today have this same promise, “I will never leave you nor forsake you” (Heb 13:5). It is because of this promise that believers can be content, no matter the circumstance.

FRIDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 52:24-30

In this passage, we read of the people being exiled to Babylon. This occurred in four phases and the first, which occurred in 605 B.C., under Jehoiakim, and this marked the beginning of the 70 years in exile. The second occurred in 597 B.C. under Jehoiachin and the third in 586 B.C. under Zedekiah. The last was from 582-581 B.C. The exile was not one event, but multiple deportations. We know that this is not the end of the story. We know that God has a plan for His people. We may not always understand the how or the why, but our trust is in a sovereign Lord.

THURSDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 52:1-23

What a sad day it must have been for the people of Judah to watch the Temple of the Lord burn, and yet the Lord had sovereignly ordained the whole thing. The Lord had sent His prophets to call the people to repent of their sin, but they refused to do so. This event stood as a lesson to the people that true worship is never about objects, but always about a heart bowed before the Lord. Let us be careful never to value anything made with hands more than we value the humble worship of our God.

SATURDAY

Prophet Project: Jeremiah 52:31-34

“Thirty-six years after Jehoiachin was captured, Nebuchadnezzar’s son Evil-merodach became king of Babylon and released Jehoiachin from prison. Although Jehoiachin had to remain in Babylon, he was given a higher seat, a more prominent place, than all the other kings Babylon had captured (Jer. 52:31–34). This is not an incidental detail but rather a hopeful sign that David’s throne had not been forgotten. The King of Judah would be exalted once more, which could only mean that God would indeed restore His people,” (Ligonier.org).
