CANYON ANNOUNCEMENTS

Men's & Women's Ministry Update

Summer is in full swing, but Fall is right around the corner, and our Women's Bible Study and Men's Discipleship Groups will be re-launching soon. Now is a good time to begin to prayerfully consider how the Lord would have you plan to get involved this Fall.

Evangelism Conference

Our annual conference this year will focus on helping all of us in our evangelism. More details to come soon, but for now, save the date Sept 6 & 7 on your calendar.

Book of the Month

Every month, the Pastoral Staff recommend a book. This month, we're recommending that you make the time to read Compelling Community. You'll find more details on this in the "Resources" section of this handout, and a link to buy the book in the Canyon Connection email this month. We're listing it here too, because... it's just that great of a book. If you would like to read it, but can't afford to buy a copy, Pastor Jason is offering to let you borrow his copy if you email him at jdrumm@canyonprescott.org

SERMON APPLICATION

1 Peter 1:15 says to be holy in all your conduct. Are there any areas of your life in which holiness is not the pattern? Confess this to the Lord. He's already aware and is gracious to forgive.

OUTREACH PRAYER

As you pray this week, for the Christians and churches in Nicaragua, pray specifically for the pastors who will be traveling to the U.S. in late September and early October as they are coming for a conference. Pray that their travel into the U.S. will be smooth. Pray that their time there will be fruitful and that they are encouraged and refreshed during this time.

RESOURCES

Book of the Month: Compelling Community

by Jamie Dunlop & Mark Dever

"We like to be around people who share our interests. We might even believe that the optimal place to grow spiritually is in an environment where people are in a similar stage of life, have similar experiences, and have similar interests. I hate to burst your bubble, but the opposite is actually true. Jamie Dunlop and Mark Dever have written Compelling Community in order to demonstrate Biblically the way God has intended for you to function in the multi-generational, multi-ethnic, and multi-everything local church. It is not hyperbole for me to say that this is one of the most important books for the church today." - Pastor Andrew

OBEDIENCE STARTS HERE

1 Peter 1:13-16

[illegible]

MONDAY

Prophet Project: Ezekiel 24:1-27

This chapter is an ugly picture of the consequences of sinful rebellion. As the Lord reveals to Ezekiel that Jerusalem has been invaded on that very day (Jerusalem would have been about 800 miles from where Ezekiel was), he is given a picture of the judgment: a pot that was once filled with choice meat and a delicious meal is now burned so badly that even the pot has been destroyed. Whatever rich blessings someone may experience, however full their pot, the judgment of God against sin can utterly ruin and destroy every good thing they have.

TUESDAY

Prophet Project: Ezekiel 25:1-11

Today, we enter a new section of the book of Ezekiel. From chapters 25–32, the Lord pronounces judgment upon the nations surrounding Israel. As you read through this section, notice that the purpose of God was not simply to destroy sinners, but to teach them that He is the true God (vv. 5, 7, 11). Even in judgment we see the amazing grace and mercy of our God.

WEDNESDAY

Prophet Project: Ezekiel 25:12-17

The prophecy against Philistia came as a result of their consistent oppression, vengeance, and enmity against Israel. They had constantly harassed Israel until David's reign. Verse 17 states, "They will know that I am the Lord, when I lay my vengeance upon them." Consider this for a moment. To be against God's people is to be against God. For those against God His vengeance will come upon them. The matter is more serious than we can truly understand. Praise God that as a believer in Christ you will no longer have to face God's vengeance.

FRIDAY

Prophet Project: Ezekiel 27:1-36

As you read today's description of the nation of Tyre, notice the wealth and prosperity they experienced but how it all came crashing down under the Lord's judgment. No doubt they were very proud of all their accomplishments, but the Bible is clear that "the Lord opposes the proud" (1 Peter 5:5). Tyre was judged and humbled for their pride. Let us take care to humble ourselves, so that the Lord won't have to.

THURSDAY

Prophet Project: Ezekiel 26:1-21

The ongoing descriptions and prophecies regarding the judgment of God on the nations ought to bring several realizations to mind for the Christian. First, when we realize that these prophecies were historically fulfilled in reality (i.e., Tyre being scraped off into the sea), we are reminded that God is always faithful to do what He says. Second, we see vivid pictures of God's holy hatred for sin, and we ought to be humbled to think that we too are sinful. Third, we see how great a penalty Christ paid on the cross to forgive our sin. We see the wrath against our sin that he endured, and we ought to be filled with a deep sense of gratitude and a heart of worship.

SATURDAY

Prophet Project: Ezekiel 28:1-19

In this passage we see that the king of Tyre claimed deity (v. 2). In concluding the passage, we know that "All who know you among the peoples are appalled at you; you have come to a dreadful end and shall be no more forever," (v. 19). One might easily think, "who would do such a thing, who would truly claim to have deity, to be a god?" Sin causes people to think and do incredible and outlandish things. Remember Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately sick; who can understand it?" Consider your life before Christ. Did sin cause you to do appalling things? What else might you have done if you had continued that path? Praise God that in Christ you do not have to truly consider such things. Instead you can rejoice that sin no longer has dominion over you, because you are no longer under the law, but under grace, (Romans 6:14).
