Book of the Month: Confronting Christianity

by Rebecca McLaughlin

Confronting Christianity explores 12 questions that keep many people from considering faith in Christ. Along the way, Rebecca shows how each of these potential roadblocks are actually signposts pointing the way. This book is for you if you have ever wondered, or wanted to answer better, questions like:

- Doesn't Christianity Denigrate Women?
- Hasn't Science Disproved Christianity?
- Aren't Christians Homophobic?
- Doesn't Religion Cause Violence?
- Doesn't Christianity Crush Diversity?
- How Could a Loving God Allow So Much Suffering?

Prophet Project: Daniel 5:1-12

Prophet Project: Daniel 5:1-12

TUESDAY

Prophet Project: Daniel 5:13-31

As Daniel interprets the handwriting, as he alone is able to, it is a message from the one true God. It is a message of judgment that tells of the end of the Babylonian Empire. The Old Testament is not the only place where we read of God's judgment. Judgment or judge is used over one hundred times in the New Testament. God's judgment ought to be taken seriously. Yet for those who have believed in Christ, there is rejoicing. "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life" (John 5:24).

WEDNESDAY

Prophet Project: Daniel 6:1-28

This chapter contains, one of the more well known biblical accounts, Daniel and the Lion's den. Daniel had refused, to treat the Persian king as the god's chief representative, Daniel refused to obey the injunction signed by Darius. After being placed in the lion's den, God delivered Daniel, and Darius acknowledged the power of Daniel's God. Daniel was delivered from the lion's den because his trust was in God and was found to be blameless before him. We too are to trust in God and seek to be blameless before Him. Pray and ask the Lord to help you to live a life that is honoring and glorifying to Him.

FRIDAY

Prophet Project: Daniel 7:13-28

As we read biblical prophecy, we can be tempted toward fear. There is no doubt that the events described in today's reading are difficult to consider. As Daniel's vision is interpreted, we are faced with the reality that the fourth beast, the Antichrist, will one day prevail over the saints (v. 21). That is, until Jesus, the Ancient of Days, comes. This is the key to conquering our fear; to remember Jesus and His coming. There is no doubt that we will have suffering and sorrow in this life, but Jesus is coming!

THURSDAY

Prophet Project: Daniel 7:1-12

Beginning with today's passage we read of Daniel's visions which have been described as apocalyptic visions. These visions were a reassurance to God's people that, in spite of exile and persecution, God is in control, that God has His purposes, and He will see them through. We too know that God has His purposes and that He is in control. You might not always understand or can see every detail, but as you read Scripture and see His faithfulness, ask the Lord to grow your faith in Him.

SATURDAY

Prophet Project: Daniel 8:1-14

In Daniel's vision, of the ram and the goat, we read of him prophesizing about historical figures long before any of them were born. Looking back we can now see that the ram represents the Medo-Persian Empire, with the higher horn representing the stronger, Persian part. The "male goat," which "came from the west across the face of the whole earth," (v. 5) represents Alexander the Great who came from Greece, which was to the west. Daniel prophesied about events that took place that we can read about in history books. It truly is a blessing that we can read about a prophesy and also read about its fulfillment.
