neither sow nor reap nor gather into feeds them. Are you not of more value

CANYON ANNOUNCEMENTS

Prayer Requests

Please send your prayer requests to prayer@canyonprescott.org.

Canyon Ministries

Canyon Ministries, including Small Groups, Men's, Women's, College, and Student ministries, have been on hold. As it relates to these ministries, the elders are continuing to monitor the situation and will update the church as soon as new information is available.

Student Ministry

Meeting Again: We are excited to announce that our student ministry will be able to meet during the month of September. Our first day back will be Wednesday, September 16th, from 7:00-8:30. We will enjoy food, fellowship, and games, along with welcoming any new students. Student ministry is open to 6th grade through senior high-school students, so please plan on attending!

Parent Night: The goal of student ministry is more than ministering to students. Our hope is to partner with and equip parents to fulfill their calling to disciple their children to the glory of God. Please plan on attending our first parent night of the year on September 9th from 6:00-7:30. We will layout our mission and means of teaching and discipling your student along with getting to know and equipping the par-ents of our students. Please RSVP by emailing our director of student ministry, Joshua Arellano, at jarellano@canyonprescott.org.

Members Meetings

Our next members meetings are scheduled for September 13th and November 15th. Please mark your calendar for that evening and plan to join us.

Book of the Month: Discipling: How to Help Others Follow Jesus
by Mark Dever

"Discipling other believers is a gracious command from our Lord. His decision to involve us in the care of His people is a privilege. I commend this book for the way it simplifies the topic of "discipleship." May this book be a blessing to you as you seek to be a blessing to other people."

THE MINISTRY OF MEETING NEEDS

Mark 6:30-44

MONDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: John 9:1-41

Jesus provided physical light to a man born blind. The passage reminds us of who Jesus is. Jesus is the light of the world, and in Him is no darkness at all. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it (John 1:4-5). This powerful truth gives the believer hope and assurance of their salvation.

TUESDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: John 10:1-21

Jesus is the Good Shepherd and the door of the sheep. The only way in which one can be part of the family of God is through Jesus. John 14:6 tells us that no one comes to the Father except through Jesus. Those who already know Jesus are aware of this and are grateful for the Good Shepherd. However, many have been deceived into thinking that there are other ways to God. Pray for those who have been deceived. Pray that they would come to know Jesus, the Good Shepherd.

WEDNESDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: John 10:22-42

Today's passage is another interaction between the religious elite and Jesus. The dialogue begins with a plea from the Jewish authorities for Jesus to confirm or deny His true identity. Jesus then indicates that He is one with God, thereby claiming deity. The Jews respond by an attempt to stone Jesus. But notice how this passage begins and ends. The Jews do not believe (v.25,26), while many across the Jordan believed (v.42). There is no room for indecision. Either Jesus is Lord, and we believe, or he is liar/lunatic, and we do not believe. How do you view Jesus, and are you responding to Him appropriately if He is Lord?

FRIDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: John 11:17-27

Eternal life and fellowship with God are only found in Jesus. These things are so closely tied with Jesus that He embodies them and are only found in relationship to Him. It is because Jesus is the "resurrection and the life" that "whoever believes in" (v. 25) Jesus, that is whoever has placed their personal trust in Christ, will have eternal life and fellowship with God. It is for those who believe who "shall never die" (v. 26), meaning that they will ultimately triumph over death.

THURSDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: John 11:1-16

Today's passage begins the well-known story of Lazarus. The narrator tells the reader that a man whom Jesus loved was ill. After receiving this news, Jesus waits two additional days before they depart to Judea. This decision was intentional and made "so that [the disciples] may believe." Everything, including death, can be used by God for our benefit and His glory. What in your life appears negative? What are you struggling with? What causes you pain? Turn and trust in the one who can use it for the glory of God.

SATURDAY

Gospel & Acts Project: John 11:28-44

"In John 11, Jesus weeps. His tears, shed in response to Lazarus' death and Mary and Martha's grief, are full of embodied truth, beauty, and goodness. Why did Jesus weep? He delayed coming to Bethany "so that the Son of God may be glorified through it" (John 11:4), and, when He arrived, informed Martha that He is "the resurrection and the life" (v. 25). If He came to Bethany to show His power, the fact that He is indeed the Messiah with the power to resurrect the dead, why did He not simply wave His "magic wand" to "solve the problem" of the death and illness of Lazarus? There would have been an immediate celebration, and all the tears would have been unnecessary. Tears are useless, even wasteful, if you possess the power to cause miracles. Instead, He made Himself vulnerable, stopped to feel the sting of death, to identify with frail humanity, who struggled to know hope."
