Upcoming Events	8
Weekly Devotionals	9

Thursday: Psalm 37

The Psalm reminds us that we are not to be envious of those who do evil and not to fret because of them (v. 1). Justice will come in the end, and God will bring forth righteousness (v. 6, 8). As believers, we are to trust in the Lord (v. 3), delight in Him (v. 4), commit our way to Him (v. 5), be still and wait patiently for the Lord (v. 7), and refrain from anger forsaking wrath.

Friday: Psalm 38

“In Psalm 38, David grasps this truth, that God hates sin and punishes those who disobey Him. God is a wrathful judge as well as a loving Father. Spend some time today and through the weekend confessing your sins before God. Be specific. Recognize that you deserve God’s disciplines in your life and praise Him for the mercy He has extended to you. Thank Him for Christ, in whom we have forgiveness of sins.” - Ligonier.org

Saturday: Prayer

Continue in prayer for the Standridge family serving in Italy. Pray for their continued adjustment to living in Italy. Pray for evangelistic and preaching opportunities.

Monday: Psalm 34

Today's Psalm is one of thanksgiving for God's care and protection for those who trust in Him. When was the last time you expressed thanks to God for His care and protection? Pray and thank the Lord. Magnify Him and exalt His name (v. 3).

Tuesday: Psalm 35

There are always those who would seek to harm believers. This psalm shows how believers are to pray in light of this. As David cries out for help, we too can cry out to the Lord for help.

Wednesday: Psalm 36

Verses 10-12 of this Psalm is a prayer in response to what came before. David reflects on how God's steadfast love protects from the wicked. Pray and praise the Lord for His steadfast love to you.

Book of the Month

What Does it Mean to Fear the Lord? by Michael Reeves

"We've all wondered at times what it really means to fear the Lord. We know it's "the beginning of wisdom" according to Proverbs, so we hope we're getting it right. Maybe you're not sure. You can be sure. Reeves says "the fear of the Lord is a blessed confusion made of sweet tears," and he walks through what the Bible teaches about it and how to grow in it. This 68-page pocket-sized booklet will be a huge encouragement to you as you "behold our God" and tremble with joy."

Weekly Resource

Help! My Kids Don't Like Church by Megan Hill:

"When our kids are resistant to church, our first inclination may be to get out of the uncomfortable weekly ritual. We all know parents who've demanded their church amend worship to suit their kids.

Or who start looking for another church—one with a schedule or style they think will be more appealing."
