Thursday: Psalm 77

“Scripture commands us to meditate on God’s wondrous works (Psalm 77:11-12). Thomas Watson wrote that meditation is ‘a holy exercise of the mind whereby we bring the truths of God to remembrance, and do seriously ponder upon them and apply them to ourselves.’” - Randall Van Meggelen

Friday: Psalm 78

This psalm begins with calling attention to and telling the “glorious deeds of the Lord, and his might” (v. 4) so “that the next generation might know them” (v. 6). The purpose is so that “they should not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation” (v. 8). That generation was not faithful to God. We, too, are to tell the next generation about God. It should be our desire to tell the next generation of who God is, what He has done, and what it means to trust Christ.

Saturday: Prayer

“The Community Pregnancy Center firmly believes that life is a spiritual battle and prayer is our most powerful weapon. We recognize that prayer is essential to every initiative and project we undertake. By partnering with us in prayer, you are helping CPC seek the Lord’s will and protection for this ministry and the clients we serve.”

Monday: Psalm 74

Verses 12-17 in today's passage recalls the mighty deeds God has done in the past. These deeds show how God has worked salvation, including the exodus from Egypt and the time in the wilderness. It is the God of the Bible who created, sustains, and saves. Take time to recall all that the Lord has done for you and praise Him for His faithfulness.

Tuesday: Psalm 75

In today's passage, it is clear that God is the one who lifts and puts down. Those whom God "puts down" are those who are boastful and wicked. The faithful are to be patient and trust in the Lord's timing in these matters. Pray that you would place more trust in the Lord and His timing over putting down the wicked.

Wednesday: Psalm 76

In Psalm 76 the "poet paints a picture of Israel's God as the one who acts decisively in power when needed (vv. 3-10) but also as the God who meets with his people and dwells with them (vv. 1-2). he is the one who brings peace (vv. 3, 8) and justice to the inflicted (v. 9) and who expands his community of blessings to all who acknowledge him, regardless of their starting point (v. 10)." – NIV Application Commentary

Book of the Month

Because He Loves Me by Elyse M. Fitzpatrick
"Because He Loves Me will provide hope and a desperately needed supply of 'spiritual oxygen' to many Christians who have lost sight of what they have and who they are in Christ and are struggling to live a life they can never live apart from him."

– Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

"A moving exposition of gospel truth showing how the doctrinal content of our faith is not merely dry, academic stuff, but wonderfully personal and practical truth." - Phil Johnson

Weekly Resource

Justice, Mercy, and the Gospel by Nicholas T. Batzig

"We cannot start with a consideration of justice or mercy at the level of the civil sphere—let alone in relation to our understanding of the gospel—without first establishing the divine source of justice and mercy. We need to recognize that we would never have any concept of 'justice' in the social sphere if there were not a just and holy God who reveals what justice looks like."
