Thursday: Psalm 102

“The psalmist reveals the unchanging nature of God by comparing Him to those aspects of creation that seem the most permanent—the heavens and the foundation of the earth. All these will pass away, but God Himself will remain ever the same (Ps. 102:25–28). The message to us is clear—only the Creator can make us secure and save us to the uttermost.” - Ligonier.org

Friday: Psalm 103

Psalm 103 is a hymn of praise. There is much to praise the Lord for as He is abundant in goodness and love for His people. So, continue praising the Lord this week and seek to praise Him more each day.

Saturday: Prayer

The Community Pregnancy Center exceeded its fundraising goal during the 2021 Walk for Life event. This helps them to continue ministering to families in our community. Continue to pray for the Center and praise the Lord as He continues to provide for this ministry.

Monday: Psalm 99

Today's psalm focuses on God's exalted holiness (vv. 3, 5, 9). In verses 2 and 3, it is expressed that all peoples would praise the great name of the Lord. Make it your prayer that all people would praise the name of the Lord.

Tuesday: Psalm 100

The Lord's steadfast love endures forever (v. 5). Knowing this should cause us to serve Him with gladness, come to His presence with singing (v. 2), and give thanks and bless His name (v. 4). Praise and honor and glory be to God whose love endures forever!

Wednesday: Psalm 101

David wants to display integrity of heart in his house. He seeks to do this by pondering "the way that is blameless" (v. 2). He also seeks to reject "those who fall away" (v. 3) and those who have "a perverse heart" (v. 4). David seeks to have nothing to do with evil. Pray that you would ponder the way of the blameless and reject what is evil.

Book of the Month

Reformation Women by Rebecca Vandoodewaard

"We know of faithful Christian examples in the past like Charles Spurgeon, John Calvin, and Martin Luther. However, there are many more examples that should be known. To that end, let me encourage you to read Reformation Women. I trust you'll be encouraged by these sisters in Christ." - Pastor Andrew Gutierrez
