Thursday: Psalm 117

“Paul quotes Psalm 117:1 in Romans 15:11 to prove that God had long planned to accomplish redemption through Jesus Christ. We don’t know the identity of the author of Psalm 117, but we know that he was a prophet, telling the story of God’s promise to redeem His people through a covenant mediator, a Messiah. And, to the surprise of many of the Jews, that promised Christ would evangelize the nations, calling not only Israel but all the nations to extol the name of the Lord.” – Joe Holland

Friday: Psalm 118

Today’s psalm is another psalm of thanksgiving. It calls on God’s people to praise Him for His steadfast love. “Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever!”

Saturday: Prayer

Our outreach prayer this week is for the Gospel Rescue Mission. The Mission seeks to change lives in Yavapai County through the redemptive power of our Lord Jesus Christ. Pray that the Lord would use the Mission mightily to accomplish this.

Monday: Psalm 114

Today's psalm is a hymn of praise that celebrates God's people and their special place in His plan. The Lord is the Lord of all creation, but He has chosen Israel to be His people. First, the people are called to remember the exodus and how God split the Red Sea. Then the psalm speaks of God's power over this world. Finally, God shows His power over the elements to care for His people. We are meant to be encouraged by the knowledge of God's great power and His care over His people.

Tuesday: Psalm 115

"When we look at Psalm 115, we see that seeking God's glory in prayer is not contrary to petitioning God for help or to seeking His blessings. We aren't called to pretend that all is well when it's not. In verse 2, we find that Israel was facing threats from other nations. But, in verses 12 and 13, the priests assured those who came to prayer that, 'The Lord has remembered us; he will bless us ... he will bless those who fear the Lord.' Like the rest of Scripture, these verses indicate that God welcomes us to cast our cares upon Him." – Richard Pratt Jr.

Wednesday: Psalm 116

The people of Israel love the Lord because of His covenant blessings and faithfulness. That love grows as they experienced God's work in their lives. This Psalm is a psalm of thanksgiving for God's care. Pray and thank the Lord for His faithful care of your life.

Sermon Application

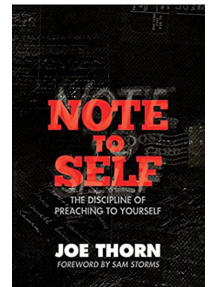

In response to Sunday's sermon pray over and answer the following application questions: Are there examples to follow? Commands to obey? Errors to avoid? Sins to forsake? Promises to claim? Thoughts about God?

Book of the Month

Note to Self by Joe Thorn

"This truly gospel-centered little devotional is a great encouragement. I've been so helped in preaching to my own heart through the short, scripture-based devotionals on each page."

More Than Seven Sons: How Ruth Teaches Us to Care for Our In-Laws

by Dan Crabtree

the CrippleGate

"But I'd like to offer one more application from the book of Ruth that has been precious to me in recent days. Ruth teaches us that godly, loyal love will compel us to care for our in-laws, or more broadly for our families."
