

Tongues and Prophecy in the Bible

Passage Reflection

This page is meant for individuals, small group Bible studies, or one-on-one interactions. Since learning more about the text's meaning in our corporate gathering, I would encourage you to meditate on the passage again so that you might respond to God in praise and obedience.

While I have not answered all of the questions below for you, I've included some of my personal meditations that may be of some benefit. May reflection on this passage be used by God to conform you into the image of Christ.

-Pastor Andrew

What do I learn about God?

Read Ephesians 2:20. God has determined that we would have as the foundation of our faith the teaching of the apostles and New Testament prophets. These two offices were built on Christ's teaching, who is the Cornerstone.

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

Christ knew and relied on the Scriptures. Is there any way that I can be learning the Bible more faithfully?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

The more I understand His Word rightly, the more I am able to speak it faithfully. Salvation comes to people by hearing the word of truth (Rom 10:14-15)

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

Since God sanctifies us with His Word (John 17:17), I can seek to help my brothers and sisters by accurately speaking the Word to them in their time of need.
