

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Outreach Prayer

The Church in Nicaragua

Please join us in prayer for the church in Nicaragua. Pray for wisdom, patience, perseverance, and faithfulness for Pastor Frank as he leads the church.

Pray that God would put passion in the hearts of the men of the church. Pray they would step into the leadership roles in their family and their church that God designed them for—in bold defiance of the "cultural norms." Pray they would desire kingdom riches more than any earthly wealth or security. Most of all pray that God would be glorified by His churches around the world—that they would be beacons of hope to those who feel hopelessly lost in their sin.

Job 9

What do I learn about God?

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

In response to today's sermon, pray over and answer the following application questions: Are there examples to follow? Commands to obey? Errors to avoid? Sins to forsake? Promises to claim? Thoughts about God?

Book of the Month

The Expulsive Power of a New Affection

by Thomas Chalmers

"In this printed sermon, Thomas Chalmers exhorts believers to remove the shackles of sin.

Many in the christian life believe that progressive sanctification—the killing of sin and the increase in the likeness of Christ—is accomplished through a constant reminder that sin is bad and incurs God's punishment. This is true and helpful to meditate on. Thomas Chalmers pushes back against this idea. He asserts that lasting change must result from a superior affection or love for God. This is a quick read that will prove helpful to your spiritual life."

Weekly Resource

Encouragement for the Trials We Face

by Jared Mellinger

"There is a bright tomorrow coming when Christ returns. On that day, we will live in the world we've always longed for—a place of perfect joy, a home where hard times will never come again. In the meantime, it is through many tribulations that we must enter the kingdom of God (Acts 14:22). As we await an imperishable inheritance, we will be, for a little while, grieved by various trials (1 Peter 1:6).

How should we think about the trials that are sure to come?"
