

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Outreach Prayer

The Grove Church-Planting Network

Please join us in prayer for the Grove Church-Planting Network. Pray that God uses this network of like-minded churches to reach all of Arizona with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Pray that the member churches would encourage each other in their commitment to a gospel-centered community, reformed soteriology, expositional preaching, and meaningful, regenerate membership.

1 Corinthians 12:1-11

What do I learn about God?

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

The Expulsive Power of a New Affection

by Thomas Chalmers

"In this printed sermon, Thomas Chalmers exhorts believers to remove the shackles of sin.

Many in the christian life believe that progressive sanctification—the killing of sin and the increase in the likeness of Christ—is accomplished through a constant reminder that sin is bad and incurs God's punishment.

This is true and helpful to meditate on. Thomas Chalmers pushes back against this idea. He asserts that lasting change must result from a superior affection or love for God. This is a quick read that will prove helpful to your spiritual life."

Members Who Build the Body

by Chopo Mwanza

"Every local church is comprised of a diverse group of people who have been radically transformed by the power of God through the person and work of Jesus Christ. These diverse people have no reason to live and work together, let alone care for each other—and yet, they choose to live in love and unity together, to the praise and glory of the Lord's name.

Healthy local churches make a powerful and attractive testimony to a watching world. This means that every member has to be devoted to building others up."
