

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

The Expulsive Power of a New Affection
by Thomas Chalmers

"In this printed sermon, Thomas Chalmers exhorts believers to remove the shackles of sin.

Many in the christian life believe that progressive sanctification—the killing of sin and the increase in the likeness of Christ—is accomplished through a constant reminder that sin is bad and incurs God's punishment. This is true and helpful to meditate on. Thomas Chalmers pushes back against this idea. He asserts that lasting change must result from a superior affection or love for God. This is a quick read that will prove helpful to your spiritual life."

He/Him Please

by Jesse Johnson

"Imagine you are a youth soccer coach, and a girl you have coached for five seasons takes you aside at practice and asks you, "Coach: I'm going through some changes in my life, and one of them is that I've decided I want to be known as a guy. Can you please address me by he/him, instead of her/she?"

What would you say?"
