

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

LORD'S DAY 43*112. What is God's will for you in the ninth commandment?

That I never give false testimony against anyone, twist no one's words, not gossip or slander, nor join in condemning anyone rashly or without a hearing.<sup>a</sup>

Rather, I should avoid, under penalty of God's wrath,<sup>b</sup> every kind of lying and deceit as the very works of the devil; and, in court and everywhere else, I should love the truth, speak it candidly, and openly acknowledge it.<sup>c</sup>

And I should do what I can to defend and advance my neighbor's honor and reputation.<sup>d</sup>

Book of the Month

Respectable Sins

by Jerry Bridges

"In our flesh it is easier to focus on the sins of others more than our own. In Respectable Sins Bridges draws our attention to the sins that we can excuse, make light of, and continue practicing. I would strongly encourage you to read this book. Our precious church would make great strides in maturity if we would put to death our respectable sins."

- Pastor Andrew

Weekly Resource

The Duties Required by the Ninth Commandment in a Social Media World

by Tim Challies

"You must be familiar with the ninth commandment: 'You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.' On a surface level it's simple enough: Don't tell lies about other people. But Christians have traditionally understood it to entail far more than this. With the rise of modern communications technologies, and especially social media, I am convinced we need to diligently apply ourselves to a fresh consideration of all this commandment requires of us."
