

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Outreach Prayer

The Church in Nicaragua

Please join us in prayer for Pastor Frank and the Church in Nicaragua. Pray for physical strength and endurance for Pastor Frank as he is dealing with back problems and that God will give him and his wife wisdom as they seek a good high school for their oldest son.

Pray that God would work in the men in their church as they are in the process of being trained and equipped for ministry. Also, pray that God would provide a praise and worship leader for their church. Pray that God would be glorified by the growth of His Church in Nicaragua.

LORD'S DAY 44113. What is God's will for you in the tenth commandment?

That not even the slightest desire or thought contrary to any one of God's commandments should ever arise in our hearts.

Rather, with all our hearts we should always hate sin and delight in all righteousness.^a

^a Ps. 19:7-14; 139:23-24; Rom. 7:7-8

114. But can those converted to God keep these commandments perfectly?

No. In this life even the holiest have only a small beginning of this obedience.^a

Nevertheless, with all seriousness of purpose, they do begin to live according to all, not only some, of God's commandments.^b

^a Eccles. 7:20; Rom. 7:14-15; 1 Cor. 13:9; 1 John 1:8-10 ^b Ps. 1:1-2; Rom. 7:22-25; Phil. 3:12-16

115. Since no one in this life can keep the Ten Commandments perfectly, why does God want them preached so pointedly?

First, so that all our life long we may more and more come to know our sinful nature and thus more eagerly seek the forgiveness of sins and righteousness in Christ.^a

Second, so that we may never stop striving and never stop praying to God for the grace of the Holy Spirit, so that we may be renewed more and more after God's image, until after this life we reach our goal: perfection.^b

^a Ps. 32:5; Rom. 3:19-26; 7:7, 24-25; 1 John 1:9 ^b 1 Cor. 9:24; Phil. 3:12-14; 1 John 3:1-3

Book of the Month

Respectable Sins

by Jerry Bridges

"In our flesh it is easier to focus on the sins of others more than our own. In Respectable Sins Bridges draws our attention to the sins that we can excuse, make light of, and continue practicing. I would strongly encourage you to read this book. Our precious church would make great strides in maturity if we would put to death our respectable sins."

Two Dangers Facing Christians Under Cultural Pressure

by D. Eaton

"There are two dangers Christians face when culture pushes against our beliefs. The first is to give in to the pressure to conform, and the second is to stand defiant in an ungodly way. The first danger reveals itself in some professing Christians' fear of the world's disapproval. This fear is not only true of some churchgoers but also true of some church leaders. This conforming to the world is one reason why many churches seem to have little to offer in today's cultural climate."
