

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Outreach Prayer

The Standridge Family

Please join us in prayer for the Standridge Family in Rome. Praise God for the work He is doing through them. Pray that He would guide their church plant to the right location for them. Pray that He would energize the Standridges to persevere through any opposition they may face so that God is glorified by His Church in Rome.

LORD'S DAY 46120. Why has Christ commanded us to address God as "our Father"?

To awaken in us at the very beginning of our prayer what should be basic to our prayer – a childlike reverence and trust that through Christ God has become our Father, and will much less refuse to give us what we ask in faith than will our parents refuse us the things of this life.^a

^a Matt. 7:9-11; Luke 11:11-13

121. Why the words "who is in heaven"?

These words teach us not to think of God's heavenly majesty in an earthly way,^a and to expect from his almighty power everything needed for body and soul.^b

^a Jer. 23:23-24; Acts 17:24-25 ^b Matt. 6:25-34; Rom. 8:31-32

Precious Remedies Against Satan's Devices

by Thomas Brooks

"Satan's tactics are numerous. However, God has provided remedies against them. Thinking rightly about temptation is vital for the Christian. In "Precious Remedies" Thomas Brooks uses Scripture to help us understand how Satan works and how we should think in response. I would encourage slow and meditative reading through this book."

A Call for Endurance and Faith

by D. Eaton

"This world is working to draw its net around Christians who hold to the truths of God's Word, and many Christians are denying clear scriptural teachings to sidestep the trap. We seem to see more and more Christians and Christian institutions failing to stand firm when the opposition to biblical sexuality comes to their door. To deny such clear biblical teaching on human sexuality and gender is a significant denial of the word of God."
