

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

Outreach Prayer

The Grove Network

Please join us in prayer for the Grove Church-planting Network. Pray that as member churches we would defy cultural pressure and remain committed to being gospel-centered, reformed churches who preach expositionally, value church membership and prioritize the multiplication of disciples. Pray that these things would lead to the transformation of this state and bring glory to God.

LORD'S DAY 45116. Why do Christians need to pray?

Because prayer is the most important part of the thankfulness God requires of us.^a

And also because God will give his grace and Holy Spirit only to those who continually and with heartfelt longing ask God for these gifts and thank him for them.^b

^a Ps. 32:5; Rom. 3:19-26, 7:7, 24-25; 1 John 1:9 ^b 1 Cor. 9:24; Phil. 3:12-14; 1 John 3:1-3

117. How does God want us to pray so that he will listen to us?

First, we must pray from the heart to no other than the one true God, who has revealed himself to us in his Word, asking for everything he has commanded us to ask of him.^a

Second, we must fully recognize our need and misery, so that we humble ourselves in God's majestic presence.^b

Third, we must rest on this unshakable foundation: even though we do not deserve it, God will surely listen to our prayer because of Christ our Lord, as he has promised us in his Word.^c

^a Ps. 145:18-20; John 4:22-24; Rom. 8:26-27; James 1:5; 1 John 5:14-15 ^b 2 Chron. 7:14; Ps. 2:11; 34:18; 62:8; Isa. 66:2; Rev. 4:1-11 ^c Dan. 9:17-19; Matt. 7:8; John 14:13; 16:23; Rom. 10:13; James 1:6

118. What has God commanded us to ask of him?

Everything we need, spiritually and physically,^a as embraced in the prayer Christ our Lord himself taught us.

^a James 1:17; Matt. 6:33

119. What is this prayer?

Our Father who is in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come.

Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.^a

Precious Remedies Against Satan's Devices

by Thomas Brooks

"Satan's tactics are numerous. However, God has provided remedies against them. Thinking rightly about temptation is vital for the Christian. In "Precious Remedies" Thomas Brooks uses Scripture to help us understand how Satan works and how we should think in response. I would encourage slow and meditative reading through this book."

Weekly Resource

Control Your Sexuality

by Tim Challies

"Self-control is a virtue of uncommon beauty, the promised result of a relationship with God, for "the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Galatians 5:22-23). Yet it is a rare virtue because so few Christians diligently seek it. In the morass of a sinful mind, self-control can feel like captivity, the denial of what is good and satisfying. In reality, though, self-control is the key to what is good and satisfying, for it steers you away from counterfeits and directs you toward the greatest sources of the highest pleasures."
