

Affirmation of Member Commitment

I will be diligent to exercise self-control so that my lifestyle exhibits both true Christian love and personal holiness.

I will faithfully assemble with this body of believers, striving to maintain unity, and doing all I can to stimulate love and good deeds in others as I seek to exercise my spiritual gifts in faithful service.

I will consistently contribute, as a good steward of God's blessings, such time, talent, and resources, in the measure that God prospers me, so that the local and worldwide ministry of spreading the gospel may continue.

I will teach biblical truth to my family and acquaintances, as God gives me opportunity, with a desire to see them come to trust Jesus Christ and be saved.

I will always be willing to both give and receive admonition and instruction with meekness and in love.

I will commit to praying for the ministry here in this church, my brothers and sisters in Christ, the elders, pastors, and deacons; and for the lost who need the Savior.

I will, with the aid of the Holy Spirit, seek to love, encourage, teach, admonish, comfort, and exhort other members, with a genuine desire to see each one grow in the knowledge of Christ and His Word.

1 Corinthians 14:1-25

"The Benefits of Understanding What's Being Said"

What do I learn about God?

Is there anything for which I should repent based on this text?

How might God use this passage to make me look more like Christ?

How does this passage affect evangelism?

How can I edify the church based on what this passage says?

Book of the Month
Holiness

by J.C. Ryle

"What is faith? How do we grow spiritually? How do we fight sin? All efforts to improve man that are not based on the remedial system of the gospel are useless. Our doctrinal knowledge, feelings, and outward forms cannot sustain true personal holiness. Our spiritual lives must have a foundation and a fountain in the gospel of Jesus to support and to sustain. This book is so relevant and Ryle's writing style is so inspiring and vivid that you will forget you are reading 150-year-old sermon manuscripts, but you will walk away having been disciplined by one of history's great pastors."

Friends Who Fell Away:

When Apostasy Comes Close to Home

by Greg Morse

"The memories, on most days, seem better left forgotten. Never has remembering sweet Bible studies tasted so bitter. Flashbacks of late-night conversations and time spent in prayer press inconsiderately upon the wound. In that large group, I can still hear his profession of faith echo. I thought I heard angels sing at his surrender. So long we had prayed for his salvation. Now, he no longer walks with Jesus.

The grief of false conversions."
