

Dear Cornerstone Family and Friends,

As we have mentioned in previous emails, our goal is to continually think of ways to keep you encouraged during this unexpected season of life. As we thought about things to do, it became apparent that a study revolving around three questions would be helpful for people to work through if they choose to.

When we or a loved one go through various trials in life, it can be difficult to remember some foundational truths that keep us from being anxious. So in an effort to help us know the truth and also be able to share it with others, we will be working through the following three questions:

- 1 - Is God always in control?
- 2 - Does God always know what's best?
- 3 - Will God always do what's best?

The answers to these questions will cover issues involving God's will, power, knowledge, wisdom, goodness, and faithfulness. These are foundational truths that we must all be convinced of, and we must always be ready to give a defense for the hope that we have regarding these issues. Our prayer is that God would use this study to help feed, protect, encourage, and energize His people as they live as light and salt in this earth.

Even though you are receiving this first lesson on a Tuesday, our plan is to send a new lesson out each Friday. This is what care group leaders are offering to go over when they meet with men who choose to come. This study is laid out in a way that anyone can do it, even if it is just you and your family, friends, or a neighbor.

On top of this, it is our goal to have a short and encouraging video provided by one of our pastors every week. All of this will be provided in an email that goes out on Fridays, and it will include prayer requests, needs, updates, and whatever else we need to provide for you! As always, if you have any questions or needs, please let a pastor or the office know.

We are praying for you, and we are eager to be able to assemble again. Until then, keep trusting in our God who sits in the Heavens and does all that He pleases (Psalm 115:3).
