Answer:

No, but because of the disobedience of our first parents, Adam and Eve, all of creation is fallen; we are all born in sin and guilt, corrupt in our nature and unable to keep God's law.

Romans 5:12

Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all people, because all sinned.

Discussion Questions

1. Why is it important to distinguish between how God originally made man and what man has become as a result of the Fall?
2. What does it mean to refer to Christ as the "second Adam"?
3. What does the Bible say about the effect of human sin and redemption on creation? How should this perspective shape our view of the natural world?
4. How should the Bible's teaching on human corruption affect our view of child rearing?
5. How should the Bible's teaching on human corruption affect our view of evangelism and salvation?
