LORD OF THE HARVEST

John 4:35; Matthew 9:35-37;
Luke 10:1-3

John 4:35

35 “Do you not say, ‘There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest’? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look on the fields, that they are white for harvest.

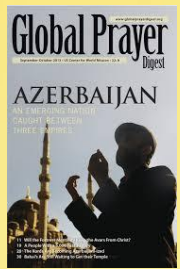

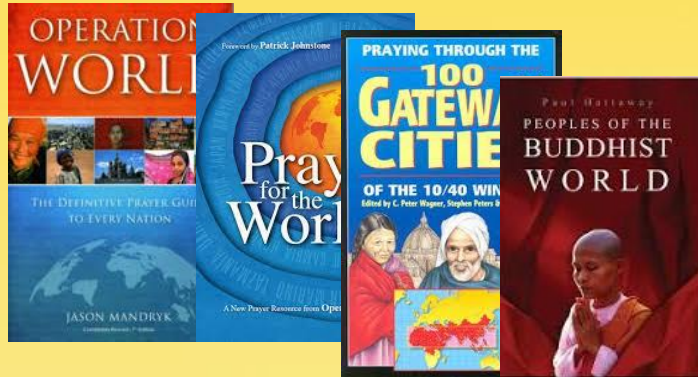

John 4:35

35 “Do you not say, ‘There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest’? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look on the fields, that they are white for harvest.

LORD OF THE HARVEST

1. If we want to have the mind of the Lord of the harvest we need to open our eyes to the world around us.

Matthew 9:35-38

35 Jesus was going through all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness.

36 Seeing the people, He felt compassion for them, because they were distressed and dispirited like sheep without a shepherd.

37 Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.

38 “Therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.”

1. If we want to have the mind of the Lord of the harvest we need to open our eyes to the world around us.
2. If we want to have the mind of the Lord of the harvest we need to pray for the lost with a broken heart.

Luke 10:1-3

1 Now after this the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them in pairs ahead of Him to every city and place where He Himself was going to come.

2 And He was saying to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

3 “Go; behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.
