Application Questions

1. Why do you think it is so easy to focus on others' sins while ignoring our own? Which sins in your life do you overlook? What should you do instead?

2. It is not comfortable to think about the judgment of God. But why is it important to think about it?

3. In what ways has the Lord been kind and patient to you? How have you responded? How should you?

Romans 2:1–4 (ESV)

<sup>1</sup> Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. <sup>2</sup> We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who practice such things. <sup>3</sup> Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who practice such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup> Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance?
