Application Questions

1. Why is it important that we see peace with God as something objective rather than subjective?

2. What is the access we have been given to God? What does that mean for our daily life?

3. What is the hardest suffering that you have been through? How can this passage help you as you go through future sufferings?

Romans 5:1-5 (ESV)

¹ Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. ² Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. ³ Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ⁴ and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, ⁵ and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.
