Application Questions

1. When we say that God is unjust in the doctrine of election, what are we assuming? What are we forgetting about?

2. What is the alternative to election? What do we have to believe regarding salvation in if we choose that alternative?

3. What is it important to remember about people in general, or about yourself in particular, or even about Pharaoh?

Romans 9:14–18 (ESV)

<sup>14</sup> What shall we say then? Is there injustice on God's part? By no means! <sup>15</sup> For he says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion." <sup>16</sup> So then it depends not on human will or exertion, but on God, who has mercy. <sup>17</sup> For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth." <sup>18</sup> So then he has mercy on whomever he wills, and he hardens whomever he wills.
