1. STUDYING BIBLICAL NARRATIVE -- Shin Asami

This class will define several techniques to help you study Biblical narrative, and guide you to apply the techniques to various passages in the Gospel of Luke. You will also learn how to apply narrative passages to your life.

Join our guest teacher, Shin Asami - former CBCer and now pastor at Anaheim Free Methodist Church - as he shares his passion in studying Biblical narrative. Enjoy Shin's warmth and laughter as you learn!

2. BIBLICAL VIEWS OF HOMOSEXUALITY -- Nick Tawa & JT Hayashi

What does the Bible actually teach about homosexuality, and how does it relate to the LGBT community today? We will develop a biblical framework for understanding this controversial issue, while learning to engage in meaningful, grace-filled dialogue.

Participants were blessed and challenged in this class last summer - you will be too!

3. THE HOLY SPIRIT OF GOD -- Brian Kaba

In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people... (Acts 2:17). Who is this mystery man that will be poured out onto us in the last days? No, he's not the Lone Ranger - for he works in close quarters with God the Father and Jesus the Son. We know much about God the Father and Jesus, but less about the Holy Spirit.

Come and join our study to see what the Bible says about the Holy Spirit: his person, work, and promises.

4. BOUNDARIES & GRACE -- Donna Katagi

God created us to be responsible and caring toward others – but how much is too much? We will study what the Bible says about healthy boundaries, discuss biblical principles, and apply them to our relationships.

This class is for those who missed the Boundaries class last year, those who want a refresher, and anyone who wants to explore when to clearly say NO, so that we can joyfully say YES.
