"IN ALL THINGS, REMEMBER THE RISEN AND REIGNING CHRIST JESUS" 2 TIMOTHY 2:1-13 CAMERON BARHAM

Key Truth: In all things, suffer well for Christ Jesus by remembering that He is risen and reigning.

2 Timothy 2:1-7: In All Things, Suffer Well for Christ Jesus:

"Suffice it to say that the normative way of wisdom—the Lord's way, the way of the Christian—is a life in which human beings make visible the presence of Christ in mission, rejoice in that visibility, and faithfully accept the opposition that his presence provokes. Is so costly a life worth the effort?"

Philip H. Towner, The Letters to Timothy and Titus

Q: What all helps you to suffer well for Christ Jesus? How are you helping others to suffer well for Christ Jesus?

2 Timothy 2:8-13: In All Things, Remember Jesus is Risen and Reigning:

"We must keep before us that Paul's command "remember" is a continuous command. Timothy is to "remember [and keep on remembering] Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, the offspring of David." Other recollections are important, but this is the essential memory. This gospel memory, constantly replayed, will enable him to stand and suffer with Paul. Jesus Christ is the resurrected, living Messiah. He is everything we need for life and salvation."

R. Kent Hughes & Bryan Chapell, 1-2 Timothy and Titus: To Guard the Deposit

Q: What all helps you to remember Jesus is risen and reigning? How are you helping others to remember Jesus is risen and reigning?

Application:

2 Timothy 2:1-13 teaches:

-in all things, suffer well for Christ Jesus by remembering that He is risen and reigning

Communion

Benediction: Numbers 6:24-26
