

EVALUATION QUESTIONS FOR SHORT-TERM MISSIONS SUPPORT CANDIDATES

Before completing this application, answering a few questions will help you determine if your short-term mission trip aligns with our goals at CCPC regarding encouraging the fulfillment of the Great Commission in your life and the life of the congregation.

- 1) Is your term of service between two months and two years?
- 2) Are you an active member of CCPC, member of a daughter church of CCPC, or an immediate family member of a CCPC congregant?
- 3) Have you gained parental support, if you are a minor?
- 4) Are you qualified to do the work anticipated?
- 5) Are you prepared to meet with the CCPC Missions Team?
- 6) Are you prepared to raise funds beyond the potential contribution) that CCPC can offer?

If you have answered in the affirmative for the above questions, please respond to the questions below:

- 1) Briefly share why you feel compelled to go on the short-term mission trip.
- 2) Have you, or are you considering missions or ministry as a career? What part might this trip play in that thought process?
- 3) What do you want to see happen spiritually in the lives of the people you are going to serve?
- 4) Describe where you will be serving.
- 5) Describe the specific work that you will be doing.
- 6) State your total financial need, how it is calculated, and the current unmet amount.
- 7) Provide any additional literature or information that you believe will be relevant.
- 8) Would you commit to give CCPC a post-trip report?

Thank you and God bless you.
