OVERVIEW OF PHILIPPIANS

(Summary of Philippians; Fall 2014; Christ Proclamation Church; Steve Thiel)

Background of Philippians (Who wrote it, when, where, and to whom?)

The Apostle Paul wrote the book of Philippians (1:1) to the Gentile church which he planted at Philippi (Acts 16:6-40). The letter was written around 62 A.D. while he was imprisoned in Rome under house arrest (Acts 28:16-31).

Occasion of Philippians (What prompted Paul to write this letter?)

The Philippians sent Paul a gift carried by Epaphroditus (2:25; 4:18). Persecution (1:15-17, 28-29; 2:15; 3:2-3, 18-19) has also resulted in the division (2:3-5; 4:2-3), derailment (1:27), and despair (2:19-30) of these gospel-centered believers.

Purpose of Philippians (What did Paul hope to accomplish?)

Paul wrote to thank them for their generosity (1:3-6; 4:10-19) and to encourage them to stand firm in the faith despite current difficulties, including Paul's imprisonment, Epaphroditus' sickness, false teaching, and persecution.

Theme of Philippians (What is the letter about?)

Believers are to stand firm in their faith as a unified body despite opposition by centering their joy in the person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ.
