Week #3: The Stories of Our Lives

Questions for Reflection/Discussion/Application -

1. Tell three stories about your life. What is the key component of the those stories?
2. How should the stories you tell inform where you put your time and energy this week?
3. Two big themes in the Bible are God's desire to be WITH us, and our design to be WITH others. Does it strike you as odd that so much of the Bible is about community when we tend to think of the Christian journey as personal?
4. Bob Goff jokes that six people will carry our coffin. Since six people will carry us our, we should have six who carry us through? Who are your SIX? What can you do THIS WEEK to strengthen your relationship with your SIX?
